Recesses Due In Formal Talks

Big Four To Take Steps For Secret Negotiations

Agreement By Gromyko Is Reported

U.S., Soviet Putting Heat On Each Other For Concessions

GENEVA (AP)—High Western diplomats reported today the Big Four probably will begin a series of recesses in their formal talks early next week to make way for secret negotiations on their disputes in Europe.

A British source said Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko has advised the West he would be "agreeable" to a new phase of restricted exchanges—provided they take place outside the Palace of Nations conference room where East and West German delegates are permitted to speak.

United States, British, French and West German foreign ministers will meet Monday to decide if and how this arrangement to allow serious negotiations can be formally worked out with Gromyko.

The United States and the Soviet Union are putting heat on each other to come up with concessions at the Geneva conference which could pave the way for a summer summit meeting.

The Soviet pressure came from Moscow where Premier Nikita Khrushchev was reported to have warned the West German ambassador that he would sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany if there was no agreement at the Geneva foreign ministers meeting.

This threat, made to Ambassador Hans Kroll in a private talk Thursday, was being examined by Western delegations for its possible significance in relation to the conference. Diplomats noted Khrushchev did not specify what agreement he has in mind, and they believe enough agreement will be reached to assure a summit parley.

From the American side the pressure on the Soviets came in the form of a statement saying that after two weeks of argument the time has come for Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko to produce proposals on German unification, the Berlin crisis and European security "which the Western powers will be glad to examine."

The statement, issued Friday night by Asst. Secretary of State Andrew H. Berding, in effect urged Gromyko to contact Moscow during the weekend Big Four recess and get authority to modify his position in the conference.

Both the Soviet and American actions appeared to be maneuvers in a war of nerves between Gromyko and the Western ministers to force a break in the present stalemated debate and come to grips with the Berlin problem.

Bids Exceed School Funds For Beaver

Low Offers Totaling $489,645 To Need Project Trimming

Low bids totaling $489,645 for Beaver Local School District's planned school enlargement program were opened Friday by the Board of Education, and the margin of bids over the funds available indicates a trimming of some facilities.

The board has already agreed to add only four classrooms at the Public School instead of the six, and reduction of the blacktop program and other items is scheduled.

About $423,000 from a school bond issue and a state grant is available for construction and equipment for the additions at the high school, public school and four elementary centers.

A total of $470,000 is authorized for the work, but architect's fees and other expenses are included.

The overall project — slated to start as early as next month if state approval is granted — includes a new music room, offices and other facilities at the high school, new classrooms at the public school and classrooms and kitchens at Calcutta, West Point, Elkton and Rogers schools.

The board will meet Monday night at 8 with Robert Beatty, architect, to review the bids and prepare to forward the papers to the State Board of Education, which may act June 8 on approving the work.

George VanHorne, executive head, said today he plans to ask the state for an additional $10,000 to $15,000 for the project, in view of the difference between the bids and funds available.

VanHorne said he and Beatty will meet at Columbus Wednesday with state officials.

Once the state board has authorized the work, the local board will advertise for bids in a move to start construction as soon as possible on the addition at the Public School where more classrooms will be needed with increased enrollment in September.

A total of six firms submitted bids for the general construction of the addition of classroom and other facilities at the high school, public school, Calcutta, Rogers, Elkton and West Point schools.

But only two companies filed bids for the complete construction work at all five sites—the Potters Construction Co. of East Liverpool, $296,059, and Bricker & Bricker of Salem, $319,950.

Potters filed the low bid for the combined high school and public school work—$115,864—while the Cartwright Construction Co. was low on the Calcutta work—$67,440. Floyd C. Cox of East Liverpool was low bidder for the additions at Rogers, Elkton and West Point—$86,968.

Potters bid for the Calcutta project was $74,960, and for the other 3 elementary additions, $106,781. Bricker & Bricker bid $131,453 on the high school job, $78,351 on the Calcutta project, and $113,515 on the other three additions.

EAT WITHOUT HUSBANDS. Whether they like it or not, the wives of top diplomats at the Foreign Ministers conference in Geneva have become reconciled to eating lunch and dinner without their men. 13 Arrested, Arms-Laden Plane Seized

Accused By U.S. Of Plot To Fly Guns To Castro Enemies

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A pretty woman flier and 11 men were accused by the government today of plotting to export war materials illegally after agents pounced on an arms-laden plane.

The four-engine C74 was reported bound for the Dominican Republic to arm foes of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro. Fulgencio Batista, ousted by Castro last New Year's eve, is in exile at the Dominican capital, Cuidad Trujillo.

Thirteen persons in all, including the Dominican Republic's consul at Miami, were arrested Friday and placed in bond.

Charged also with conspiring to bribe a federal officer were Consul Augusta Ferrando; Joseph Liquori, 29-year-old Miami policeman; and Leonard Trenton, 35, a building materials dealer from Newark, N.J.

The plane, 200,000 cartridges, and a quantity of rifles and automatic weapons were seized by customs officers as the plane was warming up at Miami International Airport.

The officers arrested Virginia L. Bland, 36, and Samuel E. Poole Jr., 34, the pilots, and 10 others at the scene. Ferrando was persuaded six hours later by telephone to quit his refuge in the consulate and surrender.

Jose Paulino, assistant consul, was bailed as a material witness.

Red-haired Miss Bland, wearing toreador pants, and Poole told newsmen they had been hired by Dominic Bartone, plane owner, to fly to Puerto Rico.

"If I had known there were arms and ammunition on the plane I never would have agreed to fly it," Poole said.

Trento told newsmen with a grin that the guns and ammunition were going to Chiang Kai-shek, Nationalist China chieftain.

John Embry of Tampa said he had no idea what the plane's cargo was when he was hired as flight engineer. William Brookley, 30, a University of Miami engineering student, said he was an innocent bystander. "I should have stayed at school today," he said.

Paulino said: "I know nothing about this case. It came as a big surprise."

Reds' Ships Active

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalist defense ministry reported increased activity by Chinese Communist ships near the Quemoy and Matsu islands as the Battle of Quemoy entered its ninth month today. But up to mid-afternoon there were no reports of any shelling from the mainland even though it was an odd-numbered—or shooting—day for the Reds.

Khrushchev's Albania Visit Puzzles U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nikita S. Khrushchev's reasons for going to Albania Monday are something of a mystery to Washington experts.

The bouncy Soviet premier plans to visit the Balkan satellite from May 25 to June 6, according to Moscow's announcement.

Khrushchev likes to travel and has never been to Albania before, but this doesn't explain why he intends to spend two weeks in a comparatively isolated country the size of Maryland with a population of only 1½ million.

The Soviet chief has just returned from an extended Crimean vacation, so it would not seem that he needs another rest along the Adriatic Sea.

He will be away from Moscow on May 27, the deadline of the original Soviet ultimatum on Berlin. That might be taken as move to de-emphasize the threat.

Albania has long been a stable unit in the Communist bloc.

It is possible Khrushchev wants to dramatize Moscow's interest in Albania, the only satellite country not land-connected with the rest of Iron Curtain empire.

Ike Nominates Davis To Be Major General

WASHINGTON (AP) — Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis Jr., Negro Air Force officer, has been nominated by President Eisenhower to be a major general—highest rank ever held by a member of his race.

Davis now is deputy chief of staff for operations for the U.S. Air Force in Europe. His headquarters are at Ramstein Air Force Base in Germany.

Wheat Bill's Fate Awaits House Action

Senate Has $35,000 Top On Supports To Any Farm, Farmer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate wheat bill, capped by a surprise $35,000 ceiling on government price supports to any one farm or farmer, goes to the House Monday. Its fate there is uncertain.

The stopgap legislation dealing with the nation's big wheat surplus was hammered out Friday in more than eight hours of Senate floor debate and voting.

Unless the Senate and House agree on a bill and President Eisenhower signs it before June 1, the present law probably must continue. The House has been working on its own wheat bill.

Even before the Senate approved its wheat program for the next two years, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson formally announced he "recommends against enactment."

Benson contended that it would not reduce production and probably would add to the costs of a program that has taken several billion dollars in recent years.

Most senators agreed that something must be done about billions of bushels of surplus wheat piled up largely in government hands. But agreeing on a solution was a different matter.

The first Senate decision was approval of the $35,000 ceiling on crop supports for any farmer.

Under the farm support loans, the producer turns the crop over to the government unless he can make a profit by paying back the loans and selling on the market.

Spurs 'War' Against Air Force

Army Attacks Senate Bid To Chop Off Missile Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has spoken up sharply and publicly against a Senate committee's recommendation to chop off three-quarters of the money to expand its Nike Hercules antiaircraft missile system.

In addition, the Army is stepping up its intramural war with the Air Force—and specifically its Bomarc missile.

While the Army went to bat for its antiaircraft system, the Air Force reportedly made a formal proposal to the Joint Chiefs of staff that an all-service strategic command be established to control all nuclear retaliatory weapons. This would include the Navy's future missile-firing submarines.

Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, was reported to have told associates, however, that the Air Force has no designs on taking over direct command of the Polaris missile submarines as part of a strategic retaliatory force.

Last week the Senate Armed Services Committee recommended that $22,400,000 for more Hercules bases in continental United States and Hawaii be trimmed to about five million. The Nike Hercules weapon, said the committee, is "virtually obsolete."

For days the Army smarted in silence over the fund cut and the "obsolete" description.

Banker Kills Wife, Self In Jealous Rage

Californian's Note Says He Intended To Shoot Lover Also

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police say a bank employe, incensed by the knowledge his wife had a lover, shot her to death and then killed himself.

Police reported a note left by the husband said:

"I had intended to kill him (the wife's lover) too, but after thinking it over, his punishment shall be living with his guilt."

A baby-sitter found the bodies of Bill Whitaker, 32, and his wife Arline, 28, in their suburban Van Nuys home Friday.

The couple's two children, aged 2½ and 11 months, were found unharmed in a locked bedroom.

The note told this story:

Last Friday, Mrs. Whitaker told her husband she had fallen in love with another man, one of the superiors at the bank where she worked nights. She had intended to move into another apartment Sunday.

Until the other man "started romancing my wife," Whitaker said in the note, "she was the most sweet and loving and wonderful person that ever walked the face of this earth. Therefore I feel the blame shall be his.

"I have broken the Fifth Commandment ("Thou shalt not kill") because he broke the Ninth Commandment ("Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife).

"Some people will say I was insane and maybe I am. But I just reached the point of no return. God put the jealous nature in us and I ask His forgiveness at this time for using it as I have."

Windshields Damaged On 9 Cars In Vandalism

Vandals damaged the windshields of nine cars and stole four hubcaps from one of the vehicles, Howard Arb, operator of Arb Motor Sales on Pennsylvania Ave., told police Friday night.

Arb said the windshield of a 1957 Mercury will have to be replaced while those on a 1957 DeSoto, 1954 and 1951 Buicks, 1955 and 1953 Chevrolets, 1955 Plymouth and 1954 Mercury were marked, apparently by an air rifle.

The wheel discs were taken from the 1954 Mercury, he added.

Meanwhile, another motorist—the fourth since Thursday night—told police yesterday afternoon a tire and wheel were stolen. Dale Wright, 418 College St., said the spare equipment was taken from his 1955 station wagon Thursday night or early yesterday.

Lewis Govey Named Chester's Water Head

Lewis Govey, 32, of Church St., a Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. employe, was named superintendent of the Chester water works at a special meeting of Council Friday evenig.

He will succeed Harold Ash who has accepted a position with the Columbia Gas System effective June 1.

Govey, who will begin work Monday, is married and has a son. His starting salary will be $4,500 and will be increased to $4,700 when he receives his third-class water works license issued by the state following a required test.

Council also discussed a summer street improvement program and bids were received for work on streets, including Fairview St. and Fairview Rd. and the Lawrenceville Hill Rd.

Killer, Father Work On Plea To U.S. Court

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Charles Starkweather, confessed slayer of 11 persons who has seen an execution date come and go three times, worked with his father, Guy, today to perfect an appeal to the federal courts.

Lean and intense Guy Starkweather saved his 20-year-old son from death Friday through midnight and early morning calls to two federal judges after failing to get another federal judge to halt the scheduled dawn execution.

Now, said Guy, he hopes to get an attorney to aid him.

Charles spent a worried night after his father had taken his son's hand-written appeal for a stay to Judge Robert Van Pelt of Lincoln and the judge had rejected the plea.

It was the contention of Charles that he was not properly represented at his trial when convicted for slaying Robert Jensen, Bennet, Neb., school boy.

The father indicated he was ready to give up after Judge Van Pelt made his ruling late Thursday. He said "I don't see that I could have done anything more."

But at midnight he began again.

Charles has until June 4 to make his appeal.

Toronto Area Hit By Storm, Heavy Rains

Phone Service Here Disrupted; Hail Accompanies Wind

Torrential rains and flash floods struck sections of the Upper Ohio Valley early Friday evening, bringing to an end the unseasonable spring heat wave.

Flash floods were reported in Hancock County and Toronto in Jefferson County with nearly 2 inches of rain falling in less than 2 hours.

Lightning caused damage to power transformers in Hancock County, especially in the New Cumberland rural areas, but there was no prolonged disruption of power or phone facilities.

The storm struck at about 7 p. m. in New Cumberland, leaving in its wake clogged sewers and flooded basements. The heavy rainfall was accompanied by hail in some sectors. East Liverpool had hail.

Homes hardest hit in New Cumberland were those on 2nd and 3rd Aves., and Smith and Porter Sts. A dirt road leading to a golf course south of New Cumberland was said washed out in sections.

Midland To Dedicate New School Gymnasium June 1

The dedication of Midland High School's new $587,614.64 gymnasium, including general administration and classroom facilities, will be held June 1 at 7:30 p. m.

Voters approved a bond issue 3 - to - 1, to construct and furnish the new building on Nov. 1, 1955. Ground was broken Dec. 16, 1957, and construction was completed last Feb. 1. Furnishings are arriving and are expected to be installed in time for the dedication.

Greetings will be extended by Burgess Eli G. Corak, H. Curtis Elder, Beaver County superintendent of schools, George M. Burrier, manager of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., and Miss Eugenia O'Hara, physical education instructor.

Supt. Ralph H. Jewell will introduce guests. John F. Shovlin III, vice president of the Board of Education, will give the welcome address.

The new building will be accepted by Leslie B. Roach, president, for the board and William A. Walters, principal, for the high school. Robert F. Beatty, East Liverpool architect, will present the building.

John Gypalo, president of the Student Council, will lead the Pledge of Allegiance. The Rev. W. L. Harris of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church will give the dedication prayer. Fr. Milorad Dobrota, pastor of the St. George Serbian Church, will give the invocation, and Fr. Francis E. Paul, pastor of the Presentation Catholic Church, the benediction.

Charles P. Henderson, director, will be in charge of selections by the high school band. C. Lloyd Deffenbaugh, director, will be in charge of choral selection by the high school chorus and Miss Despena Gagianas, the selection by the elementary school choir.

The committee for the dedication program includes James H. Morrison, chairman, Leslie B. Roach, Samuel Rosatone and Shovlin, board members, Rudolph Presutti, former board member, and Supt. Jewell.

9 Governors To Visit Soviet Union In June

NEW YORK (AP) — Nine governors will visit the Soviet Union next month to see how the Soviets handle regional government.

The governors — 5 Republicans and 4 Democrats—are scheduled to leave June 23 for a three-week tour of the Soviet Union. They will visit Moscow, Leningrad, Kiev, Tiflis and Tashkent.

They will also explore the possibility of setting up an exchange program for Soviet and American state and local officials.

Money for the tour will be provided by the Rockefeller Brothers Fund and the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

Among the governors are Leroy Collins of Florida, Democrat; George D. Clyde, Republican, Utah; John E. Davis, Republican, North Dakota; Luther H. Hodges, Democrat, North Carolina; Robert B. Meyner, Democrat, New Jersey; Stephen L. R. McNichols, Democrat, Colorado; Robert E. Smylie, Republican, Idaho; William G. Stratton, Republican, Illinois; Cecil H. "I had intended to kill him (the wife's lover) too, but after thinking it over, his punishment shall be living with his guilt."

A baby-sitter found the bodies of Bill Whitaker, 32, and his wife Arline, 28, in their suburban Van Nuys home Friday.

The couple's two children, aged 2½ and 11 months, were found unharmed in a locked bedroom.

The note told this story:

Last Friday, Mrs. Whitaker told her husband she had fallen in love with another man, one of the superiors at the bank where she worked nights. She had intended to move into another apartment Sunday.

Until the other man "started romancing my wife," Whitaker said in the note, "she was the most sweet and loving and wonderful person that ever walked the face of this earth. Therefore I feel the blame shall be his.

"I have broken the Fifth Commandment ("Thou shalt not kill") because he broke the Ninth Commandment ("Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife).

"Some people will say I was insane and maybe I am. But I just reached the point of no return. God put the jealous nature in us and I ask His forgiveness at this time for using it as I have."

Windshields Damaged On 9 Cars In Vandalism

Vandals damaged the windshields of nine cars and stole four hubcaps from one of the vehicles, Howard Arb, operator of Arb Motor Sales on Pennsylvania Ave., told police Friday night.

Arb said the windshield of a 1957 Mercury will have to be replaced while those on a 1957 DeSoto, 1954 and 1951 Buicks, 1955 and 1953 Chevrolets, 1955 Plymouth and 1954 Mercury were marked, apparently by an air rifle.

The wheel discs were taken from the 1954 Mercury, he added.

Meanwhile, another motorist—the fourth since Thursday night—told police yesterday afternoon a tire and wheel were stolen. Dale Wright, 418 College St., said the spare equipment was taken from his 1955 station wagon Thursday night or early yesterday.

Killer, Father Work On Plea To U.S. Court

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Charles Starkweather, confessed slayer of 11 persons who has seen an execution date come and go three times, worked with his father, Guy, today to perfect an appeal to the federal courts.

Lean and intense Guy Starkweather saved his 20-year-old son from death Friday through midnight and early morning calls to two federal judges after failing to get another federal judge to halt the scheduled dawn execution.

Now, said Guy, he hopes to get an attorney to aid him.

Charles spent a worried night after his father had taken his son's hand-written appeal for a stay to Judge Robert Van Pelt of Lincoln and the judge had rejected the plea.

It was the contention of Charles that he was not properly represented at his trial when convicted for slaying Robert Jensen, Bennet, Neb., school boy.

The father indicated he was ready to give up after Judge Van Pelt made his ruling late Thursday. He said "I don't see that I could have done anything more."

But at midnight he began again.

Charles has until June 4 to make his appeal.

Toronto Area Hit By Storm, Heavy Rains

Phone Service Here Disrupted; Hail Accompanies Wind

Torrential rains and flash floods struck sections of the Upper Ohio Valley early Friday evening, bringing to an end the unseasonable spring heat wave.

Flash floods were reported in Hancock County and Toronto in Jefferson County with nearly 2 inches of rain falling in less than 2 hours.

Lightning caused damage to power transformers in Hancock County, especially in the New Cumberland rural areas, but there was no prolonged disruption of power or phone facilities.

The storm struck at about 7 p. m. in New Cumberland, leaving in its wake clogged sewers and flooded basements. The heavy rainfall was accompanied by hail in some sectors. East Liverpool had hail.

Homes hardest hit in New Cumberland were those on 2nd and 3rd Aves., and Smith and Porter Sts. A dirt road leading to a golf course south of New Cumberland was said washed out in sections.

Storm

had to suspend operations until water could be pumped from the basement of the plant.

The storm seemed to center in the lower end of Hancock County, although East Liverpool, Wellsville and Chester had heavy rain briefly.

Workers from the Pughtown garage of the West Virginia State Road Commission today were inspecting rural roads in Hancock County for possible washouts.

Lockmen at Dam 9 in New Cumberland recorded a total of 1.77 inches of rainfall up to 9 p. m.

The Monongahela Power Co., office at Chester reported that either lightning or wind caused an interruption in service for 45 minutes for 30 of its customers residing on Washington School Rd. in back of Chester.

The power company added that fuses were blown in a 4,000-volt line.

Eight of the homes were without power for about four hours until repairs were completed about midnight, the firm said.

East Liverpool area got 0.46 inch of rain, but it fell in less than an hour. A thunderstorm preceded the hard rain, which was accompanied by pea-size hailstones. There was some wind. The storm dropped the mercury.

Telephone service in the Northside area along St. Clair Ave. toward Calcutta was disrupted for about eight hours last night when a cable was damaged, apparently by a falling tree limb.

About 300 homes in the area were without service. A limb of a tree blew over against the cable, causing a small break in the metal shield and allowing water to seep in, the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said.

The service went off about 7:30 last night and was restored about 3:30 this morning.

The city had a humid high of 87 degrees yesterday afternoon and an overnight low of 62. Today's high will be a cooler 57 to 62 and tonight's low will be 48 to 53. Sunday will be cloudy and cool.

City Convict May Get Reduction Of Sentence

A hearing for recommendation for commutation of sentence for convicted murderer Joseph Howell of East Liverpool will be heard on or after July 1, according to notice to the Columbiana County prosecutor's office at Lisbon Friday.

Howell and John Lester Welch were found guilty of first degree murder by three judges for shooting George J. Culp, a streetcar conductor, when he stopped below 25th St., Wellsville, in December, 1937.

Howell and Welch were not picked up for over a year after the shooting. They were given a recommendation of mercy at the trial in 1939.

Howell now is confined at the London Prison Farm.

Hookstown Woman's Play Will Be On KDKA

A play written by a Hookstown area woman, dramatizing the life of a Pennsylvania pioneer, will appear as a special program today at 4:30 over KDKA-TV, Channel 2, in Pittsburgh.

"Pennsylvania Plantations" was written by Mrs. Gladys L'Ashley Hoover as part of Pittsburgh's Bicentennial celebration.

It dramatizes the life of Christopher Gist, who was the first man to make a survey of Western Pennsylvania and was instrumental in aiding Washington's conquest of Fort Duquesne.

Faye Parker and Bob Gray star in Mrs. Hoover's play. She is a semi - professional writer and has written other plays.

Jeffrey Oyster and Grace Pinney, Chester Central School students, received the outstanding boy and girl awards of the eighth grade, presented by American Legion Post 121, during the eighth grade party at the post home Friday evening.

Some 100 attended the party sponsored by the Central Parent-Teacher Association.

Oyster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Oyster of Chester R. D. 1. Miss Pinney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Pinney of Indiana Ave.

William Martin, commander-elect, presented the awards. Max Tuttle, principal gave a talk. A dance followed the program with Leonard Cowey as disc jockey. Prizes were won by Grace Pinney and Roger Durbin for a cha - cha dance and Sally Reese and Butch Simmons for the jitterbug.

Lunch was served by homeroom mothers including Mrs. Dorothy Cornell, Mrs. George Durbin and Mrs. Charles Wagner and committee. Mrs. Jeddie Spencer was general chairman.

Steubenville Attorney Will Speak At Irondale

IRONDALE — Atty. Joseph J. Freedman of Steubenville will be principal speaker for the community's Memorial Day services May 30 at 10:30 a. m. at Memorial Field, Mayor Quenton Henderson announced.

The program will include selections by the Stanton Local High School Band directed by Donald Pahl. Dr. W. J. Smart of the Methodist Church, and Fr. George Adams of the Mission of the Nativity in Hammondsville will participate.

Arrangements for the service are being completed by a committee which includes Earl Lowry, Jack Tolson and William Hoobler.

Awards Given Students At Salineville Program

SALINEVILLE — Gosta Poldeman, valedictorian, and Sharon Cole, salutatorian, received $5 each from the Ladies Civic Club at the annual Senior Class assembly Wednesday at the high school. The presentation was made by Mrs. Clayton Rhodes.

Norma Baker read the Scripture and Violet Felton led the Lord's Prayer and the flag salute.

Sharon Cole read the class history, Larry Kessler, the class will, Nora Wolfe, the class prophecy, and Myrna Griffith, the class poem.

Sue Earl, Beverly Hayes and Myrana Griffith sang "I'll Walk With God." Vonie Trail pantomimed "I Love My Baby."

Salineville Club Views Power Company Movie

SALINEVILLE — About 30 attended a meeting of the Ruritan Club Thursday night at the St. Patrick's Catholic Church Parish Hall at which Donald Baxter of the Ohio Power Co. screened a film.

The annual "Ladies Night" program will be held June 18 at the United Presbyterian Church. Sons or daughters of club members graduating from high school will also be guests.

Killed In Collision

CINCINNATI (AP) — Odell W. Rhodes, 47, of Cincinnati was killed Friday in a two-car collision at hilltop in northeast Hamilton County.

Weirton, Akron Men Held In Traffic Arrests

Hancock County sheriff's deputies arrested a Weirton motorist for driving while intoxicated and cited an Akron man for reckless driving early this morning.

Floyd Kimble, 38, of Weirton was cited at 1:05 a. m. today on Route 2 and is being held in County Jail at New Cumberland pending a hearing today.

Billy Sparks, 22, of Akron was arrested at 5 a. m. on Route 30 and was fined $25 and costs today by Squire Eugene Allison of Chester.

Deputies added that a preliminary hearing has been set for May 29 for William Swoger, 22, of East Liverpool, who was indicted on an involuntary manslaughter charge in connection with the traffic death of Howard A. Strum of near Newell April 17.

Firemen Will Launch Carnival Tuesday Night

The Liverpool Township, West, volunteer fire department will hold a carnival Tuesday through Saturday at the station grounds in LaCroft.

The Heck Amusement Co. of East Liverpool will provide the rides. Stands will be operated by members of the Tri - State Firemen's Association. The departments to set up concessions will be Glenmoor, Calcutta, Lawrenceville, West Point and Liverpool Township, East.

Advance tickets good for all rides are being sold by firemen.

Reds Fete Americans

LONDON (AP)—Moscow staged a gala farewell reception early today for the American ice ballet show, Holiday on Ice, which ended its Soviet tour Friday night. The party was attended by Soviet Minister of Culture Nikolay Mikhaylov, top Soviet stage personalities, and diplomatic representatives.

Get More British Cars

LONDON (AP)—Britain shipped 21,000 cars to the United States in April worth 24½ million dollars. It was twice the number sold in the United States in April of last year.

Storm

had to suspend operations until water could be pumped from the basement of the plant.

The storm seemed to center in the lower end of Hancock County, although East Liverpool, Wellsville and Chester had heavy rain briefly.

Workers from the Pughtown garage of the West Virginia State Road Commission today were inspecting rural roads in Hancock County for possible washouts.

Lockmen at Dam 9 in New Cumberland recorded a total of 1.77 inches of rainfall up to 9 p. m.

The Monongahela Power Co., office at Chester reported that either lightning or wind caused an interruption in service for 45 minutes for 30 of its customers residing on Washington School Rd. in back of Chester.

The power company added that fuses were blown in a 4,000-volt line.

Eight of the homes were without power for about four hours until repairs were completed about midnight, the firm said.

East Liverpool area got 0.46 inch of rain, but it fell in less than an hour. A thunderstorm preceded the hard rain, which was accompanied by pea-size hailstones. There was some wind. The storm dropped the mercury.

Telephone service in the Northside area along St. Clair Ave. toward Calcutta was disrupted for about eight hours last night when a cable was damaged, apparently by a falling tree limb.

About 300 homes in the area were without service. A limb of a tree blew over against the cable, causing a small break in the metal shield and allowing water to seep in, the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said.

The service went off about 7:30 last night and was restored about 3:30 this morning.

The city had a humid high of 87 degrees yesterday afternoon and an overnight low of 62. Today's high will be a cooler 57 to 62 and tonight's low will be 48 to 53. Sunday will be cloudy and cool.

Hospital Treats Man Hurt In Fall

A man injured in a fall at work was admitted to City Hospital where four other persons injured in falls and another man hurt at work were treated Friday.

Ernest Pinney, 63, of Lisbon R. D. 2 is in "fair" condition today with a possible back injury suffered in a fall at work at the National Drawn Works of the Crucible Steel Co. yesterday afternoon.

Jeffrey Cornman, 2½, son of John Cornman, 923 W. 8th St., lacerated his right eye in a fall from a chair.

Marlene Eccleston, 9, daughter of Arthur Eccleston, 847 Baxter St., Pleasant Heights, cut her knee in a fall from a bicycle.

Janet Porter, 4½, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Porter Jr. of Broadview Circle, lacerated her lip in a fall while playing.

Mrs. Dorothy Woods, 1715 Lisbon St., injured her left foot in a fall.

Nick Gbur, 211 E. 3rd St., turned his foot and sprained his right ankle while working at the Louthan Manufacturing Co.

Wellsville Woman's Car Crashes Into Home

A jammed accelerator and slipped clutch were blamed for a mishap Friday night in which an auto damaged the door and door frame of a Jackson St. home.

Emily E. Green, 68, of Wellsville R. D. 1 told police she was attempting to back out of Drury Ln. when the clutch slipped and the gas feed stuck, sending her car into the home of Dorothy Fagan, 410 Jackson St.

Edgar Seeley, 323 Rural Ln., told police the left front fender and door of his 1958 sedan were damaged when struck by bicycle ridden by Lowell Koontz, 420 Prospect St.

The car was parked at the rear of Westgate School, Seeley told police.

The K. & M. Construction Co. of Lisbon bid $99,963 on the 3 elementary additions, while J. G. Madden & Sons Co. of East Palestine bid $86,487 on the Calcutta project, and $132,328 on the other 3 elementary additions.

The Firestone Electric Co. of Salem filed the lowest of 3 bids for the electric work at the five projects—$49,400. The Sayre Electric Co. of East Liverpool bid $54,326 for the complete work, and the McCullough Electric Co. of East Liverpool filed bids totaling $58,302.

The low bid for heating and ventilating at all the additions was submitted by Hall's Plumbing & Heating Co. of East Liverpool—$67,250. The C. J. Little firm of Youngstown bid $70,936. Separate bids on individual school additions were filed by Schell Heating Co., the Salem Plumbing & Heating, American Warming Co. of Cleveland and the Joseph Boiler Co. of Youngstown.

The Hall firm was also lowest bidder on the plumbing at the five jobs—$28,600. The Little company bid $35,396, and the Salem firm bid $29,677.

The Canton Hardware Co. submitted a low bid of $13,739 for kitchen equipment at the Calcutta School, while the Raffle Brothers of Youngstown was lowest bidder for equipping the 4 school cafeterias at Calcutta, Rogers, Elkton and West Point.

Other kitchen equipment firms bidding were Rhoads Co. of Fort Wayne, Ind., Leo Helbling of New Philadelphia, W. C. Zabel of Youngstown and C. F. Thorsson of Cuyahoga Falls.

The Durable Floor Co. of Youngstown bid $1,871 for tile flooring at the high school and public school and $1,860 at Calcutta. The roofing & Flooring Co. of Warren bid $1,562 for the other 3 schools. Other higher bidders were United Floor of Youngstown and Kesic Brothers of Youngstown.

Republic Steel Co. of Canton filed the sole bid for clothing lockers at the elementary schools — $3,036. Parsons Coal Co. of East Liverpool was the only bidder on surfacing drives and parking areas. The firm bid $17,938 for all schools, and $2,625 for Calcutta.

C. S. Christy of East Liverpool bid $900 for demolition of a present wooden school building at Calcutta, to make room for the new brick addition. Floyd Cox bid $1,664 for the demolition.

Bagasse is the pulp of sugar cane after the juice has been extracted.

City Convict May Get Reduction Of Sentence

A hearing for recommendation for commutation of sentence for convicted murderer Joseph Howell of East Liverpool will be heard on or after July 1, according to notice to the Columbiana County prosecutor's office at Lisbon Friday.

Howell and John Lester Welch were found guilty of first degree murder by three judges for shooting George J. Culp, a streetcar conductor, when he stopped below 25th St., Wellsville, in December, 1937.

Howell and Welch were not picked up for over a year after the shooting. They were given a recommendation of mercy at the trial in 1939.

Howell now is confined at the London Prison Farm.

Hookstown Woman's Play Will Be On KDKA

A play written by a Hookstown area woman, dramatizing the life of a Pennsylvania pioneer, will appear as a special program today at 4:30 over KDKA-TV, Channel 2, in Pittsburgh.

"Pennsylvania Plantations" was written by Mrs. Gladys L'Ashley Hoover as part of Pittsburgh's Bicentennial celebration.

It dramatizes the life of Christopher Gist, who was the first man to make a survey of Western Pennsylvania and was instrumental in aiding Washington's conquest of Fort Duquesne.

Faye Parker and Bob Gray star in Mrs. Hoover's play. She is a semi - professional writer and has written other plays.

Replacement Of 2 Schools Denied By Stanton Board

IRONDALE — Two riverfront schools in the Stanton Local School District, which do not meet state adopted standards that will be effective Sept. 1, 1959, are not to be replaced, officials stressed today.

Stanton officials said there were conflicting reports that the Empire and Stratton schools would have to be replaced in connection with a $498,000 bond issue to be decided in a special election June 2.

The buildings merely fail to meet state standards, they said.

The bond issue is for a new elementary school at Empire area, and installation of inside toilets at Hammondsville.

Officials also emphasized that while the bond levy rate has been decreased from 5.1 mills to 2.4 mills, due to construction of the Ohio Edison plant at Stratton, the operating levy was also slashed 2.8 mills so that there would be less local taxes and more state aid.

Thus the district's income for next year will be about 10 per cent over that of last year, they continued.

The statement that the tax potential of the district was boosted from $5 million to approximately $11 million with the development of the electric plant — thus doubling funds available for school operating expenses — is erroneous, they said.

Burns Are Fatal

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — James Fillers, 51, died Friday of effects of burns suffered when he set fire to his bed May 14. The victim, a mental patient, set the fire while locked in his home north of Dayton by his mother while she went downtown, sheriff's officers said.

Replacement Of 2 Schools Denied By Stanton Board

IRONDALE — Two riverfront schools in the Stanton Local School District, which do not meet state adopted standards that will be effective Sept. 1, 1959, are not to be replaced, officials stressed today.

Stanton officials said there were conflicting reports that the Empire and Stratton schools would have to be replaced in connection with a $498,000 bond issue to be decided in a special election June 2.

The buildings merely fail to meet state standards, they said.

The bond issue is for a new elementary school at Empire area, and installation of inside toilets at Hammondsville.

Officials also emphasized that while the bond levy rate has been decreased from 5.1 mills to 2.4 mills, due to construction of the Ohio Edison plant at Stratton, the operating levy was also slashed 2.8 mills so that there would be less local taxes and more state aid.

Thus the district's income for next year will be about 10 per cent over that of last year, they continued.

The statement that the tax potential of the district was boosted from $5 million to approximately $11 million with the development of the electric plant — thus doubling funds available for school operating expenses — is erroneous, they said.

Martin L. Davey Tried A Commission

Some dusty recollections of Martin L. Davey when he was governor of Ohio back in the '30s are being brushed off in connection with Gov. DiSalle's idea that state government could stand reorganization.

Gov. DiSalle proposes to go about it by getting authority from the Legislature to prepare reorganization proposals that would go into effect automatically unless rejected by the people's representatives and senators.

One criticism has been that all responsibility for the proposals would be in the governor's hands; he would be a free agent. It has been suggested that he should set up a commission to make recommendations, thereby taking himself off the spot.

If Martin Davey were still alive, he could make some interesting comments on that.

He had the idea of setting up a prestige commission of Ohio business experts under Col. C. O. Sherrill, a former city manager of Cincinnati and an outstanding businessman, to go through the executive department of Ohio with a fine-tooth comb.

COL. SHERRILL got together 140 Ohioans to study government problems and make recommendations for reorganization. They worked in 26 separate areas. Their expenses were paid by private subscription—some $200,000. They were backed by the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

The project was called the Ohio Government Survey. It had its own letterhead and did a bang-up job of public relations. But the upshot of it all was a disappointment to the people who had worked on the project.

It was a businessman's study, with businesslike recommendations. Gov. Davey immediately found himself in the middle of the animosities which were being fanned to white heat by the Roosevelt administration in Washington. To be a businessman in 1935 was to be suspected of what Mr. Roosevelt sneeringly called "Toryism." It was good politics to set class against class in the mid-'30s, and the Sherrill group was a broad target when its recommendations were published during the summer of 1935.

Gov. Davey, himself, pointed out in a mildly chiding statement that government had to be political as well as businesslike and that some of the recommendations were politically unrealistic; that they were aimed at saving money that no politician could afford to save under the circumstances.

IT IS PROBLEMATIC just how much impact all the work done by the Ohio Government Survey ever had on Ohio government. One of its noteworthy recommendations, it is recalled, was that no more money collected for state highway use should be diverted to unrelated projects. But the Survey also recommended that all highway officials, except the director, be put under civil service —and that, of course, would have been a flagrant interference with partisan politics. It was spurned.

Gov. DiSalle presumably knows what happened to Col. Sherrill and his business-backed study of state government. Today, the fashion in commissions is to water them down with equal parts of business and labor unions, thereby guaranteeing a standoff.

The quickest possible way to kill off a good idea is to turn it over to a commission. Even the much-referred-to Hoover Commission, which tried to reorganize the federal government, was more referred to than deferred to —and why?

Because its recommendations were not politically "realistic." Gov. DiSalle, a politician, knows better than to get himself involved in the tangle that complicated the gubernatorial career of Martin L. Davey.

As a politician, he would know what was realistic and what was merely efficient.

Taxes Are Never Quite That Easy

The latest and highest of the estimates of Ohio sales tax revenue that could be saved by getting rid of tax receipts is 15 million dollars. The estimate of Gov. DiSalle, who wants the receipts abolished, is only 12 million dollars.

Taxes are never quite that easy to estimate.

Their productivity is subject to ups and downs. The public mood as well as the public purse can bring about sudden changes. To show why Ohio's sales tax receipts are more important than their present critics want to think they are, turn back the clock 25 years ago.

No one understood in 1934 how it would be possible to collect a 3 per cent sales tax equitably on sales under a dollar. Ohio Retail Merchants Assn. warned its members that if they tried to absorb the tax until the time came to pay the state what it said they owed it they might get caught short and go bankrupt. It warned them also that the bookkeeping would be a crushing burden unless some efficient way to collect the tax could be worked out in advance. It derided this "untried" tax, which then was a new and disturbing proposal in Ohio.

This was the atmosphere that existed when the Ohio retail sales tax was proposed. Everybody was afraid of the new tax. There was no confidence anywhere. It was granted that the state needed the money, but no one granted that a 3 per cent tax on retail sales looked like the ideal way to get the money.

IT WAS IN an effort to offset doubts and misgivings that the receipt plan was proposed and adopted. There was, of course, still another good reason. Ohio needed money fast. Real estate interests had put on a 10-mill limitation. Real estate taxes were delinquent. An old-age pension law had been enacted. Poor relief needed more money. State support of schools and political subdivisions had become a money problem. The country was in the Roosevelt depression that was to run on until 1940.

From the very first, collections under the prepaid system of collection, with merchants giving receipts to customers to show that the state already had been paid its fair share, were higher than expected. An old report showing what happened in the first 13 weeks of collection ending April 27, 1935, lists receipts of $13,416,791.14.

The Ohio Tax Commission, commenting on this surprising total, said, "It is truly remarkable the thoroughness with which the administration of this tax has been carried out and the spirit of cooperation shown by the merchants and the public in collection and payment of the tax."

THE RECEIPT SYSTEM built confidence at a critical juncture. It may be all the bad things its critics now say it is, including Gov. DiSalle himself. But those who are putting in a good word for it may remember when a new and experimental Ohio sales tax without receipts to show that everything was shipshape probably would have gone down the drain in failure.

At least there's more to the issue than varying claims of how much money might be saved if receipts were abolished. If they never had been used in Ohio at all, they would not be an issue. Having been used here so long and so successfully, abolishing them might be something like abolishing a limb you're sitting on the end of.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Ringling Brothers' 2,000 acres of Sarasota, which for decades were the winter home of the circus, have been sold for a Florida real estate development. Ringling's Barnum & Bailey show made Sarasota famous, and the spirit of thrills and happiness will continue to live there, possibly leading to the following Florida real-estate pitches:

"Why not retire now to a wonderful land lined for generations with the Big Top, and world of daring deeds and laughter? With every lot sold in the next 90 days we will give acrobats."

"Have you ever wanted to run away with a circus? Of course you have! Here is your chance! Run away to a land with a circus background! Invest here and wear spangles! If you can't sleep back north in some colorless community, switch to Ringling Acres and find slumber counting pachyderms, lions, tigers and blood-sweating behemoths."

"The Ringling Brothers Slept Here! So can you. They made great dreams come true. They brought happiness to millions all over America eight months a year after four month's of bracing Florida air. With each sale get a pink balloon, a sack of peanuts and a free program!"

"The Winter Resort Colossal! Gargantuan Joys! Sensational Health! Unparalleled Comfort! Think what it will mean to your children to live in an area woven into the world of circus wonders, the Never-Never Land of the Man on the Flying Trapeze!

"No other region in Florida can offer such memories of beautiful bareback riders, intrepid animal trainers and pageantry of the big parade. Buy now and be in the Center Ring!"

WASHINGTON APPEALS to inventors for a "controlled lift" that can be worn by GIs enabling them to hop over hills. This can cause trouble. Imagine telling a top sarge, "My jumping device ain't working," and getting reply, "Don't tell me your hopper is out of order. Jump over that mountain or else!" Draftees would welcome a hopping device enabling them to skip over inoculations. . . .

"Montgomery To Keep Talking."—Headline. The understatement of the year. . . .

Mickey Rooney has been divorced by Wife No. 4. Wonder if in a Rooney marriage there is time for "Won't you sit down?" or "How about staying for dinner?"

Newport has a famous Bailey's Beach; how about Sarasota having a Barnum & Bailey's Beach? Anyhow a Sarasota realtor accused of overstating things can now truthfully say, "I was only clowning around."

A New York man has been arrested and fined for putting his washing into an automat machine on Sunday. The law says, "All labor on Sunday is prohibited excepting work of necessity or charity; or needed for the health and comfort of the community." Isn't a clean shirt a necessity and important to health? Automat where man washed his clothes was found not guilty under another law permitting "work of necessity." It just goes to show how cockeyed this works is becoming.

"FROM ITS VERY INCEPTION the Soviet State has been a consistent supporter of peaceful co-existence with all nations, irrespective of social or political differences"—Mr. Gromyko at Geneva. (Yoo-hoo Hungary, Tibet, Israel, Iraq, South Korea and way stations!)

"Russia makes every effort to exclude the possibility of any breach of the peace," Gromyko added with a sober face. All those threats to "plow you under, wipe western Europe off the earth," etc., were just a manifestation of love and kisses, eh?

The old popular song, "There'll Be A Hot Time In The Old Town Tonight," originated in the U. S. in the late 1890's. It was a popular song of the American soldiers in the Spanish - American War.

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

FAITH THAT AMERICANS LIVE BY—8

The J. L. Ragsdales were non-denominational missionaries teaching the Bible in Kentucky when the realization came to them that neglected children have a tremendous need for love, security and a Christian home life.

Thereupon, with a grown daughter and a friend, they founded the Open Door Children's Home at Hazard, 12 years ago.

To get beds and clothing, they sold their car. The home soon burned, but the children they had taken in stayed on for four years in two remaining rooms while the Ragsdales saved to buy some land. This property the youngsters promptly dubbed Sunshine mountain.

The older boys in the "family" cut timber, dug a well, helped build a road. When the foundation for the new home was laid, there was only $100 in the bank. But a friend bought cement, workmen contributed skills, businessmen gave discounts on goods or charged nothing, checks arrived by mail. Doctors offered their services, and coal for heating cropped up on the mountainside. The Home became a reality and now houses 47 young people aged three months to 22 years, including three who attend college. Another 20 have left to marry, take jobs or enter the armed services.

"From the beginning," say the Ragsdales, "it has been a work of faith."

Jimmy Hoffa Has Bold Plans

By Victor Riesel

Here is the inside story of Jim Hoffa's swashbuckling step-by-step strategy for control of the nation's transportation on the land, in the air—and by the seas. In the world of Jimmy H. east may be east and west may be west but the twain shall meet within the next two years — laced together by a network of hundreds of Teamster locals dominating not only the nation's transport but every essential service from bread making to food raising.

Victor Riesel

Actually the stratagem was dreamed up by a man called Dave Beck, now awaiting new tax probes. Beck saw the possibilities of such power in what are called the four Teamster Conferences.

These are geographic sectors—in the Western Conference headquartered in San Francisco, the Southern Conference centered in Dallas, the Central States Conference in St. Louis and the Eastern Conference in Washington, D. C.

The word "conference" really means "council." Beck then thought that the first move toward power should be to get all the locals in a conference to organize special groupings—all milk delivery locals in the area in one group, all bakery drivers in another, all construction material haulers in another, etc.

EACH LOCAL would try to sign contracts with its employers ending on a common date. And, if possible, all groupings would try to have their contracts end at the same time.

Once this was accomplished inside a geographical sector, then each conference would try to match its contract expiration dates with the others. Thus the Western States could be linked with the Central States and then the Southern States and then the Eastern States.

If successful, you could some day see all Teamster contracts covering long distance, over-the-road trucking end on the same date in all parts of the U.S. These contracts also could be timed to expire at the same time that the local hauling contracts run out.

If there were no contracts—there would simply be no work. No wheels would turn. And no employer could sue any Teamster local because no contract would be violated.

THIS TAKES some doing, even for Superma. So "area committees" were set up to coordinate the terminations. Then Beck ran head on into one force called the Internal Revenue Service and another by the name of Jim Hoffa. When Hoffa took over from the man with the gray flannel tongue, Jimmy revised the union constitution. That was at the Teamsters' Miami Beach convention in October '57.

At that clambake Hoffa was chairman of the constitution committee. He saw to it that the document read very plainly indeed that all locals must join all area conferences.

And, says Jimmy's constitution: "They (these groupings) shall be at all times subject to the supervision and control of the International Union and they shall function under rules laid down by and by-laws approved by the general executive board."

You don't need a meeting of Perry Mason, Nero Wolfe and Mike Hammer to know who controls the general executive board.

FOR EIGHT MONTHS after that convention Jimmy did little but out shadow-box the government. Then exactly 11 months ago he was cleared of a federal wire-tapping charge. He walked down the courtroom steps and told his prime administrator, Harold Gibbons, that he would take no vacation.

They were ready to move. They activated the area committees. They roved the nation, calling meetings and talking about the contracts. They wrote to all locals asking for the dates of expiration of all contracts. They began coordinating the data. They prepared for The Day—Der Tag.

Der Tag was uppermost in Jimmy's mind when he spoke in Brownsville, Texas, the other day of a national general strike which would "straighten out all employers once and for all."

That's bold talk. But Jim Hoffa has bold plans.

The Farce At Geneva

By David Lawrence

How About The Old Way Of Talking Things Over

GENEVA

The hopes of the world have been raised to the point where many people naively believe that a conference either of foreign ministers or of chiefs of state can really settle international disputes. But what happened at Geneva last Thursday night illustrates the utter impracticability of the method, especially when complex subjects like the security of a continent are under discussion.

David Lawrence

For several days formal sessions have been held to no avail. At last the word went around that a dinner was to be given at which only the four foreign ministers and their top aides would sit down together. There would be no taking of notes or recording of things said.

It would be what was proclaimed beforehand as a "social" affair but everybody in town, particularly the newsmen, noted that business suits were to be worn and it was described by official spokesmen as an informal dinner. So great was the interest in the getting together of the four foreign ministers that each delegation let it be known in advance that it really had nothing to offer and didn't seek to put forward any new proposals.

ALL THIS MEANS that each side was waiting to let the other take the initiative. Yet what could possibly come out of such a "social" dinner? Certainly the foreign ministers representing Great Britain, France and the United States could not make answer in a chorus to an important question. Not one of them would venture to take a position different from what had been agreed upon before with the others.

The net result is the same as the preliminary rounds of a boxing match, when no really hard blows are struck.

Unfortunately, even this analogy isn't altogether applicable, because not one of the combatants, figuratively speaking, is authorized without prior consultation to say anything that could be decisive. Diplomacy has its own language of ambiguities and only when it is reduced to writing can anything be said to be definitive.

The real significance of the dinner parley was that each side wanted to find out if the other side was ready to make any substantial concessions from the positions taken in the speeches at the formal sessions.

Two weeks have gone by and the progress of the conference to date is exactly zero. Another week of such aimless discussion will inevitably bring a demand from the public that the conference farce be ended and the problem of negotiating agreements be turned over to the ambassadors who represent the same governments at each other's capitals.

ONE WONDERS, indeed, why the groundwork for an agreement shouldn't be laid by the regularly assigned diplomats, leaving it to the top ministers of state to get together only if the differences have been narrowed to the point where there is some sign that an agreement is really in sight. Today an uninformed public demands Big Four Conferences and meetings at the summit in the mistaken belief that this is the way to solve crises.

Actually, the cumbersome procedure prevents agreement because, if there is to be any backing down on a single point—even for the purpose of trying out the other side — the change is promptly reported in the press of the world as a retreat and neither side can afford that kind of publicity.

So it's just a matter of time before the utter futility of the public conference method will be conclusively proved and there will be a return to the private discussions of ambassadors.

There is no good reason why the British, French and American ambassadors couldn't sit down with either the foreign minister or the premier in Moscow or why the Soviet ambassador in Washington couldn't have conferences with the British and French ambassadors and the secretary of state and the President.

THE SAME KIND of thing could happen at London or Paris and in the end there would be more progress toward agreement — if, indeed, there is a sincere desire on both sides to reach agreement.

Unhappily, the spectacular setting at Geneva and the organized propaganda devices merely emphasize that neither side can afford to "negotiate" or "compromise" and the end result must be failure.

The peace of the world is too important in the life of all peoples to remain unsettled for lack of a method of talking things over.

The old way — practiced long before the propaganda instruments of today were invented — was a far better means of achieving some kind of equilibrium in the world. The only defect in the historic process was that conclusions were kept secret even after the conferences were finished. Public opinion today rightly demands the revelation of any agreements reached.

Plus Fringe Benefit

By Truman Twill

Not being abreast of fashion, if the reader will pardon the expression, I do not know how many shawls it takes to start a trend.

But I have seen a young woman wearing what looked like a shawl, though she may have had some other name for it. And I made a note that here is something that should be ready for another time around.

I can remember when shawls were as common as babushkas, which figures, because they were the precursors of babushkas. The shawl, however, was a coat as well as a hat.

It was held together in front with the hands or with a shawl pin and fell in folds on the sides and back. If it happened to be a large shawl — grandmother size —its folds reached the knees.

The shawls I remember, as do others who came into this world when shawls were de rigueur in middle-class circles, encompassed me when I was in my mother's arms in cold and rainy weather. It was made of fine-textured wool, with a sedate pattern in dark colors.

There were utilitarian shawls and dress-up shawls. The latter were lighter and brighter. But the function of a shawl as apparel was only the beginning of its usefulness.

It could be a lap robe, because by nature it was essentially a featherweight blanket.

It could be made to serve as a cushion for a too-hard seat.

A baby could be rolled up in one like a cocoon and put to sleep on any nearby bed.

And if extra warmth were needed during the night, a shawl thrown over the rest of the covers sealed in the heat.

In an era before dry cleaning, a shawl could be washed and dried, which made it vastly superior to the fitted and lined coats of the era which could be sponged but not washed. This accounted for the shawl's popularity, in all probability, just as the popularity of the babushka is accounted for by the fact it does for a low-budget gal everything a hat would do, except enhance her beauty.

That was the shawl's weakness. It did nothing to enhance its wearer's beauty. Except for Spanish dolls who wore their shawls halfway down their backs and flapped the ends as if trying to fly—QOO LA — women who wear shawls were of self-proclaimed virtue.

Nevertheless, the shawl deserves a comeback. It would do wonders for the textile industry. Thanks to a weird variety of modern gunk, it now could be waterproof, mothproof, luminiscent, insect resistant, fireproof, unshrinkable, harmless if eaten and probably fitted with secret compartments for social security cards, credit cards and courtesy cards.

A baby or a little kid could get inside there with his mother and be as snug and comfortable as a nephew in a senator's office. It would be a blow at juvenile delinquency and Communism— and that should clinch it.

Just one more thing — fringe benefits. They're important, too. All shawls had fringe on the ends. That was how you told the ends from the sides, because shawls were square. Who can forget how it felt to be a toddler at his mother's knee, gnawing at the fringe of her shawl? We learned about fringe benefits from her. It sounds like a song title but is really a boast.

Martin L. Davey Tried A Commission

Some dusty recollections of Martin L. Davey when he was governor of Ohio back in the '30s are being brushed off in connection with Gov. DiSalle's idea that state government could stand reorganization.

Gov. DiSalle proposes to go about it by getting authority from the Legislature to prepare reorganization proposals that would go into effect automatically unless rejected by the people's representatives and senators.

One criticism has been that all responsibility for the proposals would be in the governor's hands; he would be a free agent. It has been suggested that he should set up a commission to make recommendations, thereby taking himself off the spot.

If Martin Davey were still alive, he could make some interesting comments on that.

He had the idea of setting up a prestige commission of Ohio business experts under Col. C. O. Sherrill, a former city manager of Cincinnati and an outstanding businessman, to go through the executive department of Ohio with a fine-tooth comb.

COL. SHERRILL got together 140 Ohioans to study government problems and make recommendations for reorganization. They worked in 26 separate areas. Their expenses were paid by private subscription—some $200,000. They were backed by the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

The project was called the Ohio Government Survey. It had its own letterhead and did a bang-up job of public relations. But the upshot of it all was a disappointment to the people who had worked on the project.

It was a businessman's study, with businesslike recommendations. Gov. Davey immediately found himself in the middle of the animosities which were being fanned to white heat by the Roosevelt administration in Washington. To be a businessman in 1935 was to be suspected of what Mr. Roosevelt sneeringly called "Toryism." It was good politics to set class against class in the mid-'30s, and the Sherrill group was a broad target when its recommendations were published during the summer of 1935.

Gov. Davey, himself, pointed out in a mildly chiding statement that government had to be political as well as businesslike and that some of the recommendations were politically unrealistic; that they were aimed at saving money that no politician could afford to save under the circumstances.

IT IS PROBLEMATIC just how much impact all the work done by the Ohio Government Survey ever had on Ohio government. One of its noteworthy recommendations, it is recalled, was that no more money collected for state highway use should be diverted to unrelated projects. But the Survey also recommended that all highway officials, except the director, be put under civil service —and that, of course, would have been a flagrant interference with partisan politics. It was spurned.

Gov. DiSalle presumably knows what happened to Col. Sherrill and his business-backed study of state government. Today, the fashion in commissions is to water them down with equal parts of business and labor unions, thereby guaranteeing a standoff.

The quickest possible way to kill off a good idea is to turn it over to a commission. Even the much-referred-to Hoover Commission, which tried to reorganize the federal government, was more referred to than deferred to —and why?

Because its recommendations were not politically "realistic." Gov. DiSalle, a politician, knows better than to get himself involved in the tangle that complicated the gubernatorial career of Martin L. Davey.

As a politician, he would know what was realistic and what was merely efficient.

Taxes Are Never Quite That Easy

The latest and highest of the estimates of Ohio sales tax revenue that could be saved by getting rid of tax receipts is 15 million dollars. The estimate of Gov. DiSalle, who wants the receipts abolished, is only 12 million dollars.

Taxes are never quite that easy to estimate.

Their productivity is subject to ups and downs. The public mood as well as the public purse can bring about sudden changes. To show why Ohio's sales tax receipts are more important than their present critics want to think they are, turn back the clock 25 years ago.

No one understood in 1934 how it would be possible to collect a 3 per cent sales tax equitably on sales under a dollar. Ohio Retail Merchants Assn. warned its members that if they tried to absorb the tax until the time came to pay the state what it said they owed it they might get caught short and go bankrupt. It warned them also that the bookkeeping would be a crushing burden unless some efficient way to collect the tax could be worked out in advance. It derided this "untried" tax, which then was a new and disturbing proposal in Ohio.

This was the atmosphere that existed when the Ohio retail sales tax was proposed. Everybody was afraid of the new tax. There was no confidence anywhere. It was granted that the state needed the money, but no one granted that a 3 per cent tax on retail sales looked like the ideal way to get the money.

IT WAS IN an effort to offset doubts and misgivings that the receipt plan was proposed and adopted. There was, of course, still another good reason. Ohio needed money fast. Real estate interests had put on a 10-mill limitation. Real estate taxes were delinquent. An old-age pension law had been enacted. Poor relief needed more money. State support of schools and political subdivisions had become a money problem. The country was in the Roosevelt depression that was to run on until 1940.

From the very first, collections under the prepaid system of collection, with merchants giving receipts to customers to show that the state already had been paid its fair share, were higher than expected. An old report showing what happened in the first 13 weeks of collection ending April 27, 1935, lists receipts of $13,416,791.14.

The Ohio Tax Commission, commenting on this surprising total, said, "It is truly remarkable the thoroughness with which the administration of this tax has been carried out and the spirit of cooperation shown by the merchants and the public in collection and payment of the tax."

THE RECEIPT SYSTEM built confidence at a critical juncture. It may be all the bad things its critics now say it is, including Gov. DiSalle himself. But those who are putting in a good word for it may remember when a new and experimental Ohio sales tax without receipts to show that everything was shipshape probably would have gone down the drain in failure.

At least there's more to the issue than varying claims of how much money might be saved if receipts were abolished. If they never had been used in Ohio at all, they would not be an issue. Having been used here so long and so successfully, abolishing them might be something like abolishing a limb you're sitting on the end of.

The Once Over

Ringling Brothers' 2,000 acres of Sarasota, which for decades were the winter home of the circus, have been sold for a Florida real estate development. Ringling's Barnum & Bailey show made Sarasota famous, and the spirit of thrills and happiness will continue to live there, possibly leading to the following Florida real-estate pitches:

"Why not retire now to a wonderful land lined for generations with the Big Top, and world of daring deeds and laughter? With every lot sold in the next 90 days we will give acrobats."

"Have you ever wanted to run away with a circus? Of course you have! Here is your chance! Run away to a land with a circus background! Invest here and wear spangles! If you can't sleep back north in some colorless community, switch to Ringling Acres and find slumber counting pachyderms, lions, tigers and blood-sweating behemoths."

"The Ringling Brothers Slept Here! So can you. They made great dreams come true. They brought happiness to millions all over America eight months a year after four month's of bracing Florida air. With each sale get a pink balloon, a sack of peanuts and a free program!"

"The Winter Resort Colossal! Gargantuan Joys! Sensational Health! Unparalleled Comfort! Think what it will mean to your children to live in an area woven into the world of circus wonders, the Never-Never Land of the Man on the Flying Trapeze!

"No other region in Florida can offer such memories of beautiful bareback riders, intrepid animal trainers and pageantry of the big parade. Buy now and be in the Center Ring!"

WASHINGTON APPEALS to inventors for a "controlled lift" that can be worn by GIs enabling them to hop over hills. This can cause trouble. Imagine telling a top sarge, "My jumping device ain't working," and getting reply, "Don't tell me your hopper is out of order. Jump over that mountain or else!" Draftees would welcome a hopping device enabling them to skip over inoculations. . . .

It just goes to show how cockeyed this works is becoming.

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

FAITH THAT AMERICANS LIVE BY — 8

The J. L. Ragsdales were non-denominational missionaries teaching the Bible in Kentucky when the realization came to them that neglected children have a tremendous need for love, security and a Christian home life.

Thereupon, with a grown daughter and a friend, they founded the Open Door Children's Home at Hazard, 12 years ago.

To get beds and clothing, they sold their car. The home soon burned, but the children they had taken in stayed on for four years in two remaining rooms while the Ragsdales saved to buy some land. This property the youngsters promptly dubbed Sunshine mountain.

The older boys in the "family" cut timber, dug a well, helped build a road. When the foundation for the new home was laid, there was only $100 in the bank. But a friend bought cement, workmen contributed skills, businessmen gave discounts on goods or charged nothing, checks arrived by mail. Doctors offered their services, and coal for heating cropped up on the mountainside. The Home became a reality and now houses 47 young people aged three months to 22 years, including three who attend college. Another 20 have left to marry, take jobs or enter the armed services.

"From the beginning," say the Ragsdales, "it has been a work of faith."

Jimmy Hoffa Has Bold Plans

By Victor Riesel

Here is the inside story of Jim Hoffa's swashbuckling step-by-step strategy for control of the nation's transportation on the land, in the air—and by the seas. In the world of Jimmy H. east may be east and west may be west but the twain shall meet within the next two years — laced together by a network of hundreds of Teamster locals dominating not only the nation's transport but every essential service from bread making to food raising.

THE SAME KIND of thing could happen at London or Paris and in the end there would be more progress toward agreement — if, indeed, there is a sincere desire on both sides to reach agreement.

Unhappily, the spectacular setting at Geneva and the organized propaganda devices merely emphasize that neither side can afford to "negotiate" or "compromise" and the end result must be failure.

The peace of the world is too important in the life of all peoples to remain unsettled for lack of a method of talking things over.

The old way — practiced long before the propaganda instruments of today were invented — was a far better means of achieving some kind of equilibrium in the world. The only defect in the historic process was that conclusions were kept secret even after the conferences were finished. Public opinion today rightly demands the revelation of any agreements reached.

Plus Fringe Benefit

By Truman Twill

Not being abreast of fashion, if the reader will pardon the expression, I do not know how many shawls it takes to start a trend.

But I have seen a young woman wearing what looked like a shawl, though she may have had some other name for it. And I made a note that here is something that should be ready for another time around.

I can remember when shawls were as common as babushkas, which figures, because they were the precursors of babushkas. The shawl, however, was a coat as well as a hat.

It was held together in front with the hands or with a shawl pin and fell in folds on the sides and back. If it happened to be a large shawl — grandmother size —its folds reached the knees.

The shawls I remember, as do others who came into this world when shawls were de rigueur in middle-class circles, encompassed me when I was in my mother's arms in cold and rainy weather. It was made of fine-textured wool, with a sedate pattern in dark colors.

There were utilitarian shawls and dress-up shawls. The latter were lighter and brighter. But the function of a shawl as apparel was only the beginning of its usefulness.

It could be a lap robe, because by nature it was essentially a featherweight blanket.

It could be made to serve as a cushion for a too-hard seat.

A baby could be rolled up in one like a cocoon and put to sleep on any nearby bed.

And if extra warmth were needed during the night, a shawl thrown over the rest of the covers sealed in the heat.

In an era before dry cleaning, a shawl could be washed and dried, which made it vastly superior to the fitted and lined coats of the era which could be sponged but not washed. This accounted for the shawl's popularity, in all probability, just as the popularity of the babushka is accounted for by the fact it does for a low-budget gal everything a hat would do, except enhance her beauty.

That was the shawl's weakness. It did nothing to enhance its wearer's beauty. Except for Spanish dolls who wore their shawls halfway down their backs and flapped the ends as if trying to fly—QOO LA — women who wear shawls were of self-proclaimed virtue.

Nevertheless, the shawl deserves a comeback. It would do wonders for the textile industry. Thanks to a weird variety of modern gunk, it now could be waterproof, mothproof, luminiscent, insect resistant, fireproof, unshrinkable, harmless if eaten and probably fitted with secret compartments for social security cards, credit cards and courtesy cards.

A baby or a little kid could get inside there with his mother and be as snug and comfortable as a nephew in a senator's office. It would be a blow at juvenile delinquency and Communism— and that should clinch it.

Just one more thing — fringe benefits. They're important, too. All shawls had fringe on the ends. That was how you told the ends from the sides, because shawls were square. Who can forget how it felt to be a toddler at his mother's knee, gnawing at the fringe of her shawl? We learned about fringe benefits from her. It sounds like a song title but is really a boast.

Odd Facts

The popular expression of today, "red herring," meaning a subject used to divert one's attention from the main subject, comes from the oldtime practice of drawing a smoked (red) herring across a trail to destroy a scent and confuse bloodhounds.

The two lakes with the greatest lengths in the world are the North American Lake Superior and the African Lake Tanganyika, each of which is 400 miles long.

The Red Cross is the only volunteer society authorized to render aid to the Medical Department of the U. S. Army.

SENTINELS OF FREEDOM

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free. — Galatians 5:1.

Memorial Day 1959 — We pause to pay homage to the defenders of our country, who have fought and bled and died, to preserve for us our freedom. Their graves are marked by crosses—a symbol of death, and also of hope and life immortal.

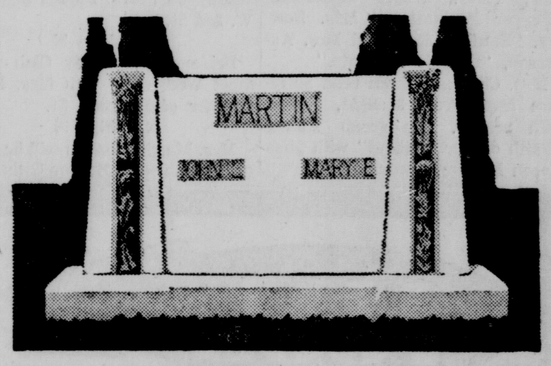

We can cherish their memory best by serving the living veterans and their families who still bear the scars of war. Sometimes death can be sweet release, but to live on in suffering and affliction requires grace, patience and long suffering on the part of the victim, and warm and tender understanding on the part of those who care.

The Salvation Army has been allied with members of our armed forces, particularly since World War I, when our lads and lassies served coffee and doughnuts to the members of the American Expeditionary Forces "somewhere in France."

The friendship began then, continues today throughout many and varied ministries in many parts of the world.

Members of the East Liverpool Corps on hand each month to see the inductees "off" at Lisbon, with a timely message, prayer and farewell token.

Let us all wear a "Poppy" in honor of our heroic dead.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When does a baby start to think?

Nobody knows, exactly. But thoughts do come by association. Baby eagerly responds to the sight of a bottle because experience has proven that the bottle offers both satisfaction and comfort.

Because baby does learn by association, it is important that parents take care to enlarge their childrens' horizons as they grow. A very small child will respond to a simple prayer. And a child of three will find great enjoyment in attending Church School geared for youngsters of that age.

Religious instruction and guidance is not for the mature only—it is needed regularly by everyone. The spiritual life of your child needs constant cultivation, just as the mind needs day by day development and the physical body needs exercise and training.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When does a baby start to think?

Nobody knows, exactly. But thoughts do come by association. Baby eagerly responds to the sight of a bottle because experience has proven that the bottle offers both satisfaction and comfort.

Because baby does learn by association, it is important that parents take care to enlarge their childrens' horizons as they grow. A very small child will respond to a simple prayer. And a child of three will find great enjoyment in attending Church School geared for youngsters of that age.

Religious instruction and guidance is not for the mature only—it is needed regularly by everyone. The spiritual life of your child needs constant cultivation, just as the mind needs day by day development and the physical body needs exercise and training.

Little League Teams To Launch Regular Season Monday

Three Games Set For Opening Day

A new champion will be crowned in the East Liverpool Little League this season.

Metz's, the 1958 winner, is not sponsoring a team, with most of its former players performing under the Chester American Legion banner.

Last year it was Metz's and the Travelers Yankees battling in the final playoffs. Metz's had little trouble in blanking the Yanks twice to capture the crown.

Six of the eight teams will begin their pennant drive Monday when the 1959 season officially opens. The Little Leaguers had their tuneup during the annual preview last Wednesday at Myler Park.

A full schedule of three games is on tap Monday at the city's three Little League fields. Two National League games will be played, with the Burbick Cardinals meeting the new entry, Chester Legion, at Myler Park and the Medics clashing with McBurneys at Columbian Park in East End.

One American League contest is set, with Homer Laughlins and Travelers meeting at Thompson Park.

Golden Star and Millirons, the other two teams in the American division, will mark time until Tuesday when they clash in their first game of the season at Myler Park.

One new manager will be on the scene this year. Bill Wolfe has replaced George Heddleston as manager of the Burbick entry.

In the National League, Gene Talbott will handle the Medics, Kenny Seibert McBurneys and Bob Blake the Chester Legion.

The American League managers remain the same, with Tom (Casey) Cloran in charge of the Travelers Yankees, Homer Ensinger, Millirons; Laird Christen, Golden Star, and Len Walker, Homer Laughlin.

Harm Rogers will be sharing the managerial duties with Walker this season.

Big Ten Now In Quandry Over Rose Bowl Contract

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The Big Ten today was in a quandry over a two-headed Rose Bowl football monster it has created in a weird move.

From two 5-5 standoff votes Friday came this strange setup:

First, the policy-making faculty representatives refused to renew the Rose Bowl contract which expires with the 1960 game after a 14-year span.

Then, proponents of the bowl dug out a joker from near the bottom of the conference legal deck and opened the way for free-for-all participation in the Rose Bowl by member schools on an individual basis.

The joker was a clause inserted in the conference handbook in 1946 which waived the league's ban on all athletic postseason competition for participation in the Rose Bowl.

The antibowl group of Ohio State, Illinois, Wisconsin, Northwestern and Minnesota succeeded in killing the proposal to renew the bowl contract because a 5-5 deadlock spikes any new legislation.

But, in rebuttal, the pro-Rose Bowl group of Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Purdue and Michigan State voted against eliminating the Rose Bowl proviso from the rule book.

The way things stand now, after the 1960 Rose Bowl game the newly organized Big Four West Coast group of California, Washington, Southern California and UCLA can invite any Big Ten school to the Pasadena classic. However, if a team like Ohio State or Illinois won the conference championship and was the logical team to be invited such a school would be put in an embarrassing position because of its expressed stand against the Rose Bowl.

Of course, the West Coast group, which is an offshoot of the Pacific Coast Conference destined to perish July 1, also could invite any other Eastern rival outside the Big Ten.

Western Michigan Makes Fast Start

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Western Michigan has a headstart on defense of its Mid-American Conference track and tennis championships.

In Friday's preliminaries, Western Michigan and Ohio University led the field with 12 men apiece qualifying for the track finals in six events.

And Western Michigan advanced men to the tennis singles finals in all four divisions taking an early lead.

Ohio University opened defense of its conference golf title with a 13 under par 279 for its four-man team in the first 18 holes of the championship test.

The title finals in all three sports are scheduled today.

Behind the two track leaders, Bowling Green qualified nine men and host Miami eight.

In tennis, Miami with eight points is only two behind Western Michigan, Bowling Green and Toledo have three each and Kent State two.

Ohio U. has a 23-stroke lead over its closest competitors, Western Michigan and Bowling Green, going into today's final 18 holes. Miami has 306, Marshall and Kent State 307 each and Toledo 319.

Indians Buy Baxes From Spokane Club

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians today purchased third baseman Jim Baxes from Spokane of the Pacific Coast League.

Baxes, 30, a right-handed batter, was bought to bolster the Indians' reserve strength. He has been in the Los Angeles Dodgers' farm organization several years. He appeared in 10 games with that team this spring, collecting nine hits in 29 trips for a .310 batting average.

The addition of Baxes once again brings the Cleveland roster up to the 25-player limit. A year ago at Spokane, Baxes hit 28 home runs, drove in 75 runs and batted .271 in 150 games. He has been in the PCL since 1949.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Hoyt Wilhelm, Orioles, came within six outs of becoming the first to no-hit the Yankees twice, finally settling for a one-hit 5-0 victory.

Hitting — Hank Aaron, Braves, rapped a home run, a double and two singles, scored four runs and drove in three while gaining 12 points for a 468 average in 10-5 victory over the Phillies.

RALPH CROWE, umpire-in-chief, gives final instructions to his crew of six umpires prior to the start of the Little League season Monday night. The umpires, left to right, are Earl Groubert, Jerry Wagoner, Carl Hadley, Jim Hadley, Paul Dunlevy and Harry Edmund. Groubert is the dean of the local Little League umpires, with seven years service.

New Champions To Wear Crowns In Spring Sports

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A flock of new kings were due for coronation today in Ohio's high school spring sports carnival.

Of the eight championships in four sports to be decided today, the defenders have a chance of retaining four—but the odds are against most of them.

Xenia Woodrow Wilson appears doomed in Class A track, and Springfield's Wildcats face an uphill chore in Class AA. Cincinnati Elder's Class AA baseball champs are still around—but must get by Barberton's Magics today in the finals.

Shaker Heights had a six-stroke lead at the halfway mark in defense of its gold crown, and appeared to have the best opportunity to repeat. All the other champions were washed away by graduation or in district qualifiers.

Cleveland East Tech, Cleveland Glenville and Springfield were due to fight it out today for the big school track-field title, with East Tech favored to grab its 15th championship in the 52nd annual meet. The Scarabs broke both the half-mile and mile relay records in Friday's qualifiers, with a 1:29.3 performance in the first and a 3:23.6 clocking in the second.

Marion Harding's all-Ohio football end, Bob Middleton, broke the state discus record with a heave of 174 feet 8¼ inches—and he did it on his final throw. He failed to qualify for the finals on his first three early tests, made it with the fourth and finale one. In the finals his first two tosses were mediocre, but he almost threw the disc out of the stadium with his final effort.

The Class A track scrap was believed between Chagrin Falls, West Alexandria and Yellow Springs Bryan—rated off the qualifying in seven track events. Three finals in field tests were run off in Class A Friday, West Alexandria taking the lead with eight points to 6½ for Covington, and 6 for North Robinson. Fifteen schools hit the scoring in the three events — but West Alexandria's lead could be the difference.

For the first time in his 33 years as track coach at Mansfield, Harry Mehock is going home without scoring a point. His only hope, Don Ragsdale, failed to qualify for the high hurdles.

Another frustrated coach is Akron North's Bob White. Jim Davis of North, winner of last year's mile; Ray Fleming who has beaten Davis this year, and Frank Baker, who had qualified for the state meet in both hurdles and the broad jump, decided to pass up the finals in favor of the senior prom. White came to the big carnival with only Hal Erickson, who tied for the last qualifying place in the district high jump.

Northwestern of Wayne County, the 1958 Class A basketball champion, gets a chance to add the Class A baseball crown to its laurels today as it goes against Spencerville. Dean Chance, all-Ohio basketeer, pitched a no-hitter Friday as Northwestern defeated Cincinnati Country Day 1-0. Spencerville was a 2-1 victor over Lynnwood-Jacksontown.

In Class AA baseball Cincinnati Elder defeated Bryan 2-1, as Dave Roebuck of the losers gave up his first earned runs in 82 innings this year. Barberton reached the finals by 4-1 over Cleveland South.

Tennis finals also were on tap today, but there was a chance for thunderstorms which could postpone the court contests and the baseball games.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Championship finals summaries Friday in the 52nd Ohio high school track-field meet:

Class AA

Discus—1, Bob Middleton, Marion Harding, 174 feet 8½ inches; 2, John Protich, Cincinnati Western Hills, 173-8½; 3, Ray Allen, Dayton Dunbar, 160-11½; 4, Kirk Gooding, Lima Senior, 159-11; 5, Bob Barrett, Willoughby North, 158-10½. (New record, betters mark of 174-4½ set by Doug Cotterman of Mentor in 197.)

Class A

Shot put—1, Bob Hartley, Covington, 50 feet 10 inches; 2. Elwood Bliss, Bloomville, 50-1½; 3, John Harrigan, New Paris Jefferson, 49-1; 4, Dick David, Fredericktown, 48-8; 5 (tie), Jim Sampson, Covington, and Tom Rodgers, Prospect, 48-5.

Pole vault—1, Allen Grove, North Robinson, 11 feet 10 inches; 2, William Housel, Midvale, 11-8; 3 (tie), James Dunn, Berlin Center Western Reserve, Don Green, West Alexandria, and Barry Eversole, Columbus Grove, 11-4.

Broad jump—1, Robert Woganan, West Alexandria, 21 feet 7¾ inches. 2, Osborne Wood, Richmondale Southeastern, 21-4¾. 3, Paul Oren, Pandora, 21-3¾. 4, Dave Underwood, Hiram, 20-11. , (tie), Dave Wolf, Mansfield Union and Bob Stough, Johnstown Monroe, 20-9.

WOHI Hires Karaffa As Sports Announcer

Radio station WOHI of East Liverpool today announced that John Karaffa, former basketball coach at ELHS, has been appointed new sports broadcaster.

Karaffa, who resigned from the cage post this spring, will be in charge of a sports show Monday through Saturday at 5:45 p. m.

The station announced that Karaffa already is making plans to broadcast regional Little League and PONY League baseball games.

The announcement added that "Karaffa's collegiate and scholastic background will add depth to the program department."

The former Toronto High School and Ohio State University star will begin his daily sports shows Monday evening.

Schofield's Blast Wins For Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds were riding high earlier this season when an old enemy, Warren Spahn, spotted a soft spot.

Cincinnati at the time was hitting often in the teens, scoring surplus runs, creating havoc among rival pitchers and even held the National League lead for less than a day.

Spahn, the ageless master of the Milwaukee pitching staff, said of the Reds:

"Wait until they quit scoring so many and see what happens."

The wisdom of the remark seems to show best in the Reds current road trip. Pittsburgh's Pirates beat them 4-3 Friday night, the ninth defeat in 14 road games.

And the Reds are now back in the second division, 5½ games out of first place.

The Redleg hitting has Manager Mayo Smith mildly worried, but he is more concerned at this point with the team's pitchers.

Smith said he believes the key to the National League chase is relief pitching.

And that was the immediate cause of the Reds' loss Friday night. Relief Hal Jeffcoat inherited a 3-3 tie when he took over in the ninth, fanned Vern Law and then gave up the winning home run to Dick Schofield.

That deciding homer produced a big rhubarb with Smith heading a group of Reds disputing the call of a legal homer.

The homer went into the right centerfield bleachers, then bounced back into the playing field and was retrieved by outfielder Gus Bell.

Bell insisted a fan had reached over the rail and interferred with the ball which would have made it a ground rule double.

But Umpire Ed Sudol who had left his second base spot to make the call, paid no heed to the debate and the umpires left the field.

The Reds lost a chance to break the tie in the top of the ninth. Cincinnati loaded the bases with one out, but Johnny Powers fanned as a pinch hitter and John Temple hit into a forceout.

Pittsburgh had tied the score with one run in the fifth, loading the bases on a double, hit batsman and a walk, and scoring on Bill Mazeroski's forceout.

Cincinnati had started scoring with one run in the first inning on Temple's single and Vada Pinson's double.

Pittsburgh came back in their half of the first with two runs. Bill Virdon singled and Rocky Nelson and Mazeroski hit doubles around a walk to Bob Skinner.

Cincinnati made it 3-2 in the third on Temple's single and Jerry Lynch's home run.

Haney Claims '59 Braves Better Than Club In '58

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Manager Fred Haney says his current Milwaukee Braves are better than the ones which won the National League pennant last year.

"I don't like to make comparisons," Haney said, "but at this time last year we didn't have (Bill) Bruton and (Wes) Covington. Both were out with bad legs.

"Another thing, I think we have a stronger bench. Maybe I'm not being fair to the kids I had last year. After all, the bench won the pennant for me, at least defensively. I pulled kids like Mel Roach, Harry Hanebrink, Casey Wyse and Felix Mantilla out of position and they did a heck of a job for me, playing strange positions.

"But I must admit there were times when I'd need a pinch hitter and I'd be afraid to look at my bench.

"It's a lot different this year. Mickey Vernon has done a wonderful job for us and while Stan Lopata hasn't hit yet he's still a threat up there at the plate."

It was noted that in the team's first 32 games, Lew Burdette (10) and Warren Spahn (9) started 19 of them. Bob Rush, for instance, has started only two. So has Juan Pizarro. Bob Buhl has started four. Carleton Willey and Joey Jay, last year's young sensations, have started three and four games, respectively.

"What can you do," Haney apologized, "when you got too many good pitchers? You can't start them all. But the season is still young. They'll all get enough work."

Haney's most pleasant surprise so far has been the hitting of Johnny Logan and Del Crandall. Each is hitting well over .300 and driving in runs.

Hasn't Haney forgotten someone?

"Oh, you mean Henry Aaron and the way he's been hitting this year," he asked innocently. "That's no surprise. Nothing Henry does surprises me.

"He's just coming into his own. I said three years ago that some day he's going to be on a par with such great right handers as Roger Hornsby, Harry Heilmann, Jimmy Foxx and Al Simmons. Well, the day has come. He's as good a hitter right now as any of them."

Wingsaway Captures Lebanon Trot Feature

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Wingsaway, a fleet little brown horse from Westerville, showed five competitors how to negotiate the mud and win the feature trot at Lebanon Raceway Friday night.

With Dick Wilcox driving, Wingsaway dueled for the lead with Flicka Frost over the first half mile, then stood off a threat by Lusty Aileen to take a photo finish. The time was 2:19.

The victor, an 8-year-old, was the 5-2 favorite and paid $5.20, $3 and $3.20.

Hacker Beats Loop Leaders

By The Associated Press

Veteran pitcher Warren Hacker is really hummin' the horsehide in a bid to regain a major league pitching post—and at the same time is bolstering Buffalo's pennant aspirations in the International League.

The 34-year-old right - hander won his third game Friday night—he's yet to lose—as he limited league-leading Miami to five hits in a 3-2 Bison victory. Hacker's third route - going performance moved Buffalo within seven percentage points and a half-game of the Marlins.

Hacker, who's seen action in the majors with Chicago's Cubs, Cincinnati and Philadelphia, is available to the parent Phils if the National League cellar-dwellers consider him a solid choice to bolster a mediocre pitching staff.

In other games, Rochester edged Havana 9-8 Richmond nipped Montreal 6-5 and Columbus defeated Toronto 9-4 in 11 innings.

The Jets put together four hits, a walk and a sacrifice fly off Pat Scantlebury in the 11th to hand Toronto its 13th loss in 16 games. Joe Gibbon won it for Columbus holding the Leafs to eight hits while his teammates banged 15.

Ohio Junior Golf Meet Reset For June 29-30

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Middletown's Wildwood Country Club will play host to the Ohio Junior Golf Tournament on June 29-30 instead of June 8-9, the Ohio Golf Assn. announced Friday.

The change was made because the earlier dates conflict with final school activities in some sectors.

Entries will be accepted up to 10 a.m. the opening day of the tourney, said W. H. Margraf, association secretary.

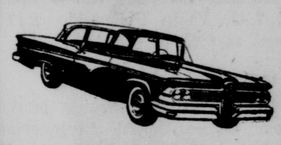

Packers Get McHan

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cardinals traded quarterback Lamar McHan to the Green Bay Packers Friday for a future high draft choice in the National Football League. The 26-year-old McHan, the Cards' No. 1 draft pick in 1954, played five years for them.

Three Games Set For Opening Day

A new champion will be crowned in the East Liverpool Little League this season.

Metz's, the 1958 winner, is not sponsoring a team, with most of its former players performing under the Chester American Legion banner.

Last year it was Metz's and the Travelers Yankees battling in the final playoffs. Metz's had little trouble in blanking the Yanks twice to capture the crown.

Six of the eight teams will begin their pennant drive Monday when the 1959 season officially opens. The Little Leaguers had their tuneup during the annual preview last Wednesday at Myler Park.

A full schedule of three games is on tap Monday at the city's three Little League fields. Two National League games will be played, with the Burbick Cardinals meeting the new entry, Chester Legion, at Myler Park and the Medics clashing with McBurneys at Columbian Park in East End.

One American League contest is set, with Homer Laughlins and Travelers meeting at Thompson Park.

Golden Star and Millirons, the other two teams in the American division, will mark time until Tuesday when they clash in their first game of the season at Myler Park.

One new manager will be on the scene this year. Bill Wolfe has replaced George Heddleston as manager of the Burbick entry.

In the National League, Gene Talbott will handle the Medics, Kenny Seibert McBurneys and Bob Blake the Chester Legion.

The American League managers remain the same, with Tom (Casey) Cloran in charge of the Travelers Yankees, Homer Ensinger, Millirons; Laird Christen, Golden Star, and Len Walker, Homer Laughlin.

Harm Rogers will be sharing the managerial duties with Walker this season.

Groubert is the dean of the local Little League umpires, with seven years service.

Schofield's Blast Wins For Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds were riding high earlier this season when an old enemy, Warren Spahn, spotted a soft spot.

Cincinnati at the time was hitting often in the teens, scoring surplus runs, creating havoc among rival pitchers and even held the National League lead for less than a day.

Spahn, the ageless master of the Milwaukee pitching staff, said of the Reds:

"Wait until they quit scoring so many and see what happens."

The wisdom of the remark seems to show best in the Reds current road trip. Pittsburgh's Pirates beat them 4-3 Friday night, the ninth defeat in 14 road games.

And the Reds are now back in the second division, 5½ games out of first place.

The Redleg hitting has Manager Mayo Smith mildly worried, but he is more concerned at this point with the team's pitchers.

Smith said he believes the key to the National League chase is relief pitching.

And that was the immediate cause of the Reds' loss Friday night. Relief Hal Jeffcoat inherited a 3-3 tie when he took over in the ninth, fanned Vern Law and then gave up the winning home run to Dick Schofield.

That deciding homer produced a big rhubarb with Smith heading a group of Reds disputing the call of a legal homer.

The homer went into the right centerfield bleachers, then bounced back into the playing field and was retrieved by outfielder Gus Bell.

Bell insisted a fan had reached over the rail and interferred with the ball which would have made it a ground rule double.

But Umpire Ed Sudol who had left his second base spot to make the call, paid no heed to the debate and the umpires left the field.

The Reds lost a chance to break the tie in the top of the ninth. Cincinnati loaded the bases with one out, but Johnny Powers fanned as a pinch hitter and John Temple hit into a forceout.

Pittsburgh had tied the score with one run in the fifth, loading the bases on a double, hit batsman and a walk, and scoring on Bill Mazeroski's forceout.

Cincinnati had started scoring with one run in the first inning on Temple's single and Vada Pinson's double.

Pittsburgh came back in their half of the first with two runs. Bill Virdon singled and Rocky Nelson and Mazeroski hit doubles around a walk to Bob Skinner.

Cincinnati made it 3-2 in the third on Temple's single and Jerry Lynch's home run.

Hacker Beats Loop Leaders

By The Associated Press

Veteran pitcher Warren Hacker is really hummin' the horsehide in a bid to regain a major league pitching post—and at the same time is bolstering Buffalo's pennant aspirations in the International League.

The 34-year-old right - hander won his third game Friday night—he's yet to lose—as he limited league-leading Miami to five hits in a 3-2 Bison victory. Hacker's third route - going performance moved Buffalo within seven percentage points and a half-game of the Marlins.

Hacker, who's seen action in the majors with Chicago's Cubs, Cincinnati and Philadelphia, is available to the parent Phils if the National League cellar-dwellers consider him a solid choice to bolster a mediocre pitching staff.

In other games, Rochester edged Havana 9-8 Richmond nipped Montreal 6-5 and Columbus defeated Toronto 9-4 in 11 innings.

The Jets put together four hits, a walk and a sacrifice fly off Pat Scantlebury in the 11th to hand Toronto its 13th loss in 16 games. Joe Gibbon won it for Columbus holding the Leafs to eight hits while his teammates banged 15.

Ohio Junior Golf Meet Reset For June 29-30

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Middletown's Wildwood Country Club will play host to the Ohio Junior Golf Tournament on June 29-30 instead of June 8-9, the Ohio Golf Assn. announced Friday.

The change was made because the earlier dates conflict with final school activities in some sectors.

Entries will be accepted up to 10 a.m. the opening day of the tourney, said W. H. Margraf, association secretary.

Packers Get McHan

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cardinals traded quarterback Lamar McHan to the Green Bay Packers Friday for a future high draft choice in the National Football League. The 26-year-old McHan, the Cards' No. 1 draft pick in 1954, played five years for them.

Big Ten Now In Quandry Over Rose Bowl Contract

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The Big Ten today was in a quandry over a two-headed Rose Bowl football monster it has created in a weird move.

From two 5-5 standoff votes Friday came this strange setup:

First, the policy-making faculty representatives refused to renew the Rose Bowl contract which expires with the 1960 game after a 14-year span.

Then, proponents of the bowl dug out a joker from near the bottom of the conference legal deck and opened the way for free-for-all participation in the Rose Bowl by member schools on an individual basis.

The joker was a clause inserted in the conference handbook in 1946 which waived the league's ban on all athletic postseason competition for participation in the Rose Bowl.

The antibowl group of Ohio State, Illinois, Wisconsin, Northwestern and Minnesota succeeded in killing the proposal to renew the bowl contract because a 5-5 deadlock spikes any new legislation.

But, in rebuttal, the pro-Rose Bowl group of Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Purdue and Michigan State voted against eliminating the Rose Bowl proviso from the rule book.

The way things stand now, after the 1960 Rose Bowl game the newly organized Big Four West Coast group of California, Washington, Southern California and UCLA can invite any Big Ten school to the Pasadena classic. However, if a team like Ohio State or Illinois won the conference championship and was the logical team to be invited such a school would be put in an embarrassing position because of its expressed stand against the Rose Bowl.

Of course, the West Coast group, which is an offshoot of the Pacific Coast Conference destined to perish July 1, also could invite any other Eastern rival outside the Big Ten.

New Champions To Wear Crowns In Spring Sports

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A flock of new kings were due for coronation today in Ohio's high school spring sports carnival.

Of the eight championships in four sports to be decided today, the defenders have a chance of retaining four—but the odds are against most of them.

Xenia Woodrow Wilson appears doomed in Class A track, and Springfield's Wildcats face an uphill chore in Class AA. Cincinnati Elder's Class AA baseball champs are still around—but must get by Barberton's Magics today in the finals.

Shaker Heights had a six-stroke lead at the halfway mark in defense of its gold crown, and appeared to have the best opportunity to repeat. All the other champions were washed away by graduation or in district qualifiers.

Cleveland East Tech, Cleveland Glenville and Springfield were due to fight it out today for the big school track-field title, with East Tech favored to grab its 15th championship in the 52nd annual meet. The Scarabs broke both the half-mile and mile relay records in Friday's qualifiers, with a 1:29.3 performance in the first and a 3:23.6 clocking in the second.

Marion Harding's all-Ohio football end, Bob Middleton, broke the state discus record with a heave of 174 feet 8¼ inches—and he did it on his final throw. He failed to qualify for the finals on his first three early tests, made it with the fourth and finale one. In the finals his first two tosses were mediocre, but he almost threw the disc out of the stadium with his final effort.

The Class A track scrap was believed between Chagrin Falls, West Alexandria and Yellow Springs Bryan—rated off the qualifying in seven track events. Three finals in field tests were run off in Class A Friday, West Alexandria taking the lead with eight points to 6½ for Covington, and 6 for North Robinson. Fifteen schools hit the scoring in the three events — but West Alexandria's lead could be the difference.

For the first time in his 33 years as track coach at Mansfield, Harry Mehock is going home without scoring a point. His only hope, Don Ragsdale, failed to qualify for the high hurdles.

Another frustrated coach is Akron North's Bob White. Jim Davis of North, winner of last year's mile; Ray Fleming who has beaten Davis this year, and Frank Baker, who had qualified for the state meet in both hurdles and the broad jump, decided to pass up the finals in favor of the senior prom. White came to the big carnival with only Hal Erickson, who tied for the last qualifying place in the district high jump.

Northwestern of Wayne County, the 1958 Class A basketball champion, gets a chance to add the Class A baseball crown to its laurels today as it goes against Spencerville. Dean Chance, all-Ohio basketeer, pitched a no-hitter Friday as Northwestern defeated Cincinnati Country Day 1-0. Spencerville was a 2-1 victor over Lynnwood-Jacksontown.

In Class AA baseball Cincinnati Elder defeated Bryan 2-1, as Dave Roebuck of the losers gave up his first earned runs in 82 innings this year. Barberton reached the finals by 4-1 over Cleveland South.

Tennis finals also were on tap today, but there was a chance for thunderstorms which could postpone the court contests and the baseball games.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Championship finals summaries Friday in the 52nd Ohio high school track-field meet:

WOHI Hires Karaffa As Sports Announcer

Radio station WOHI of East Liverpool today announced that John Karaffa, former basketball coach at ELHS, has been appointed new sports broadcaster.

Karaffa, who resigned from the cage post this spring, will be in charge of a sports show Monday through Saturday at 5:45 p. m.

The station announced that Karaffa already is making plans to broadcast regional Little League and PONY League baseball games.

The announcement added that "Karaffa's collegiate and scholastic background will add depth to the program department."

The former Toronto High School and Ohio State University star will begin his daily sports shows Monday evening.

Haney Claims '59 Braves Better Than Club In '58

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Manager Fred Haney says his current Milwaukee Braves are better than the ones which won the National League pennant last year.

"I don't like to make comparisons," Haney said, "but at this time last year we didn't have (Bill) Bruton and (Wes) Covington. Both were out with bad legs.

"Another thing, I think we have a stronger bench. Maybe I'm not being fair to the kids I had last year. After all, the bench won the pennant for me, at least defensively. I pulled kids like Mel Roach, Harry Hanebrink, Casey Wyse and Felix Mantilla out of position and they did a heck of a job for me, playing strange positions.

"But I must admit there were times when I'd need a pinch hitter and I'd be afraid to look at my bench.

"It's a lot different this year. Mickey Vernon has done a wonderful job for us and while Stan Lopata hasn't hit yet he's still a threat up there at the plate."

It was noted that in the team's first 32 games, Lew Burdette (10) and Warren Spahn (9) started 19 of them. Bob Rush, for instance, has started only two. So has Juan Pizarro. Bob Buhl has started four. Carleton Willey and Joey Jay, last year's young sensations, have started three and four games, respectively.

"What can you do," Haney apologized, "when you got too many good pitchers? You can't start them all. But the season is still young. They'll all get enough work."

Haney's most pleasant surprise so far has been the hitting of Johnny Logan and Del Crandall. Each is hitting well over .300 and driving in runs.

Hasn't Haney forgotten someone?

"Oh, you mean Henry Aaron and the way he's been hitting this year," he asked innocently. "That's no surprise. Nothing Henry does surprises me.

"He's just coming into his own. I said three years ago that some day he's going to be on a par with such great right handers as Roger Hornsby, Harry Heilmann, Jimmy Foxx and Al Simmons. Well, the day has come. He's as good a hitter right now as any of them."

Wingsaway Captures Lebanon Trot Feature

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Wingsaway, a fleet little brown horse from Westerville, showed five competitors how to negotiate the mud and win the feature trot at Lebanon Raceway Friday night.

With Dick Wilcox driving, Wingsaway dueled for the lead with Flicka Frost over the first half mile, then stood off a threat by Lusty Aileen to take a photo finish. The time was 2:19.

The victor, an 8-year-old, was the 5-2 favorite and paid $5.20, $3 and $3.20.

Western Michigan Makes Fast Start

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Western Michigan has a headstart on defense of its Mid-American Conference track and tennis championships.

In Friday's preliminaries, Western Michigan and Ohio University led the field with 12 men apiece qualifying for the track finals in six events.

And Western Michigan advanced men to the tennis singles finals in all four divisions taking an early lead.

Ohio University opened defense of its conference golf title with a 13 under par 279 for its four-man team in the first 18 holes of the championship test.

The title finals in all three sports are scheduled today.

Behind the two track leaders, Bowling Green qualified nine men and host Miami eight.

In tennis, Miami with eight points is only two behind Western Michigan, Bowling Green and Toledo have three each and Kent State two.

Ohio U. has a 23-stroke lead over its closest competitors, Western Michigan and Bowling Green, going into today's final 18 holes. Miami has 306, Marshall and Kent State 307 each and Toledo 319.

Indians Buy Baxes From Spokane Club

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians today purchased third baseman Jim Baxes from Spokane of the Pacific Coast League.

Baxes, 30, a right-handed batter, was bought to bolster the Indians' reserve strength. He has been in the Los Angeles Dodgers' farm organization several years. He appeared in 10 games with that team this spring, collecting nine hits in 29 trips for a .310 batting average.

The addition of Baxes once again brings the Cleveland roster up to the 25-player limit. A year ago at Spokane, Baxes hit 28 home runs, drove in 75 runs and batted .271 in 150 games. He has been in the PCL since 1949.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Hoyt Wilhelm, Orioles, came within six outs of becoming the first to no-hit the Yankees twice, finally settling for a one-hit 5-0 victory.

Hitting — Hank Aaron, Braves, rapped a home run, a double and two singles, scored four runs and drove in three while gaining 12 points for a 468 average in 10-5 victory over the Phillies.

Orioles' Wilhelm Handcuffs Yanks With One-Hitter, 5-0

AS INDIANS WON. Indians' shortstop Granny Hamner watches Tigers' catcher Lou Berberet jump across to retrieve ball following 7th inning strikeout by pitcher Paul Foytack. Chisox Down A's; Boston Tops Nats

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

National League clubs brushed off Hoyt Wilhelm because they could tell when he was going to throw his money pitch, the knuckler. Now he holds the ball in his glove and American League hitters in the palm of his hand.

Once a bullpen wonder for the Giants in the National League, Wilhelm drifted to the Cardinals and then into the American League with Cleveland before coming to roost with Baltimore. It was Oriole Manager Paul Richards who suggested he hide the ball in his glove.

Now the 35-year-old right-hander has become such a mystery to hitters that he's unbeaten, and even had switch-hitting Mickey Mantle resorting to a rare tactic Friday night. The Mick didn't switch — and he didn't hit, either.

Fact is, Wilhelm came within six outs of becoming the first pitcher ever to no-hit the New York Yankees twice, then settled for a one-hitter while packing away his sixth victory as Baltimore belted the champs deeper into the cellar 5-0.

By winning their fifth straight over the Yankees, the third place Orioles stayed within 2½ games of the first place Cleveland Indians, who managed just two hits but beat Detroit 1-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Gary Bell. The second place Chicago White Sox, a half-game back, defeated Kansas City 2-1. Boston beat Washington 4-3.

In the National League, first place Milwaukee walloped Philadelphia 10-5 and Los Angeles took second by beating San Francisco 2-1 in 13 innings. Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati 4-3. St. Louis spilled the Chicago Cubs 3-1 in 14 innings.

Wilhelm walked six and struck out two, losing his no-hitter on Jerry Lumpe's leadoff single—off a knuckler—in the eighth.

The Orioles chased Bob Turley (3-5) with four runs in the first on five consecutive hits and a bases-loaded walk to Wilhelm—all with two out.

The Indians got both their hits off starter Paul Foytack (1-6) in the seventh inning, scoring on Vic Power's double and Minnie Minoso's two-out two-bagger. Ray Narleski pitched a hitless final inning for the Tigers.

Luis Aparicio led off with a single, stole second and scored on Nellie Fox's single in the first inning for the White Sox, then doubled and scored the clincher on an error in the third against Bob Grim (4-4). The A's had just four hits off Bob Shaw (4-0), who gave up a run in the sixth on Ray Boone's two-out single and Bob Cerv's double. Shaw gave way in the ninth, needing Turk Lown's relief and center fielder Jim Landis' diving catch of Dick Williams' liner for the final out with the bases loaded.

Ted Williams brought in the tying run for Boston with a sacrifice fly in the fifth, then doubled and scored the winning runs on Frank Malzone's double in the seventh. Dick Gernert's homer scored the other two Red Sox runs in the second against Camilo Pascual (3-4). Ike Delock (5-1) won it despite Nat homers by Reno Bertoia and Jim Lemon.

AVOIDS PICKOFF THROW. Chicago third baseman Bubba Phillips slides back into first base as Athletics' Hector Lopez moves over from second to take pickoff throw from catcher Frank House. Phillips was safe. Chicago took the first game of the series by a score of 2-1. (UPI Telephoto)

Bell's 1-0 Victory Erases Doubts Of Sophomore Jinx

CLEVELAND (AP)—Gary Bell has erased any doubts he might be bitten by the sophomore jinx.

The 22-year-old Cleveland right-hander hurled a four-hit shutout in a 1-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers Friday night. It was his first major league whitewash job and his second victory in a row.

At the end of last season when the Indians were driving for a first division spot, Bell was one of the team's top pitchers. He wound up with a 12-10 record after joining the Indians in midseason.

But this season he started out with some troubles. Manager Joe Gordon became a little concerned and put the young Texan in the bullpen. There Gordon and pitching coach Mel Harder inspected him closely.

They found the good-looking 6-foot-1, 195-pounder wasn't striding as he used to and wasn't getting the full follow-through on his pitches. They made some suggestions and they turned out fine when he beat the Baltimore Orioles 8-3 last Sunday on a seven-hitter.

Friday night against the Tigers Bell was as good as a pitcher can be. He had to be good, too, because Detroit's Paul Foytack allowed the league-leading Indians only two hits—a pair of seventh inning doubles by Vic Power and Minnie Minoso.

Here's what catcher Hal Naragon thought of Bell:

"Gary had everything out there . . . he was fast, strong all the way, had good control and came in with some good curves and sliders."

Bell, himself, said he never felt better this season.

"A couple of weeks ago I couldn't seem to get in the groove," Bell said. "I was hurrying my stride and getting all mixed up. Tonight I felt like a pitcher again."

Lumpe Ruins Wilhelm's Bid For 2nd No-Hitter

BALTIMORE (AP) — "Sure I would have liked to pitch another no-hitter but you have to be lucky to get even one of those."

That was Hoyt Wilhelm's calm appraisal of Jerry Lumpe's leadoff single in the eighth inning Friday night which ruined his bid for a second no-hitter over the New York Yankees since joining the Baltimore Orioles last Aug. 23. The Orioles beat the cellar-dwelling world champions 5-0.

Lumpe, a left-handed batter, sliced a 1-1 pitch to left field as a crowd of 29,084 first groaned and then applauded for Wilhelm.

"He hit a knuckle ball," said Wilhelm. "I knew it was a hit right away. It was just one of those things," he shrugged. "I guess one no-hitter is enough for anybody."

The 35-year-old right-hander, who throws knuckle balls about 90 per cent of the time, said he used quite a few fast balls and sliders in the early innings. But in the final three innings he relied almost entirely on the dancing knuckler.

Wilhelm said he was advised by pitching coach Harry Brecheen after the sixth inning to slow down his pace. "I did and I had more control after that," said Wilhelm.

Strangely enough, from the time he joined the New York Giants in 1952 until last year, he didn't start a game in the majors.

Wilhelm credits Oriole Manager Paul Richards with making him more effective by getting him to hold the ball in his glove to prevent tipping his pitches.

Drysdale Finally Wins 4th As Dodgers Shade Giants

By The Associated Press

It's been a long time coming, but Don Drysdale finally has nailed his fourth victory and the Los Angeles Dodgers at last are getting even with the San Francisco Giants.

The Dodgers grabbed second place in the National League from San Francisco as Drysdale, winless for almost a month, defeated the Giants 2-1 in 13 innings Friday night. It was the sixth victory over the Giants this season for the Dodgers—matching the total they managed in last year's 22-game series.

It also was Drysdale's fifth in a row over the Giants since last Aug. 8, but it looked like just another fruitless night for the lean right-hander until Gil Hodges' two-out single put it away. Drysdale (4-4) hadn't been a winner since April 27, but in that span he had gone 11 innings for no decision against Milwaukee and nine innings to no decision against San Francisco.

The runner-up switch upped Milwaukee's first place edge to four games after the Braves, with Hank Aaron going four-for-five, had walloped Philadelphia 10-5. Pittsburgh brought Cincinnati back to .500 by beating the fifth place Reds 4-3. And the St. Louis Cardinals put the Chicago Cubs fourth with a 3-1 decision in 14 innings.

In the American League, Cleveland had only two hits but beat Detroit 1-0, retaining a half-game lead over the Chicago White Sox, who defeated Kansas City 2-1. Hoyt Wilhelm came within six outs of becoming the first pitcher to no-hit the New York Yankees twice, then settled for a one-hitter as Baltimore defeated the last place champs 5-0. Boston beat Washington 4-3.

Drysdale and southpaw Johnny Antonelli were in a double two-hit duel for eight innings. The Dodgers had a 1-0 lead, scoring without a hit in the sixth on a walk, sacrifice and error, until Willie Kirkland's single and Orlando Cepeda's two-out triple — after Willie Mays had fanned — tied it in the ninth.

Aaron smacked a home run, a double and a pair of singles, scored four runs, drove in three and upped his league-leading average 12 points to .468. His homer, No. 12, came with a man on in a three-run first against Robin Roberts (2-3). Lew Burdette became the first to win seven in the majors.

Dick Schofield, inserted at shortstop only Thursday in a Pirate shake-up, beat the Reds with a ninth-inning homer, his first.

Gini Cimoli's double and a balk gave the Cards two runs in the 14th against losing reliever Bill Henry (3-2). Jim Brosnan (1-3) won it in relief.

Embattled Yanks Have Troubles On, Off Field

BALTIMORE (AP) — The embattled New York Yankees are having troubles on and off the field since dropping into the American League cellar for the first time in 19 years.

Twice Friday they were involved in rhubarbs with news photographers. And on two other occasions umpires gave them a dressing down for their deportment.

A plastic helmet and a baseball came flying out of the Yankee dugout Friday night after starter Bob Turley was knocked out of the box in the first inning and photographers snapped his picture.

Earlier in the day the Yanks were reported to have brushed aside cameramen as they boarded a train in New York for the trip to Baltimore.

Manager Casey Stengel denied reports he intentionally snubbed the photographers in New York.

After the dugout incident, third base umpire Ed Runge waved a menacing finger at the bench but no one was banished.

"If I saw who did it I might have done something about it," Runge said after the game.

Just before Turley was knocked from the box during a four-run first-inning rally, he had a run-in with plate umpire Ed Hurley over a pitch to Oriole pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm.

"I didn't like the call (a ball) and I guess I showed it," Turley said. "But I never said anything to him."

But Turley thought the pitcher was trying to show him up before the big crowd of 29,084. "He might just as well have come in and kicked me as to have done what he did," Turley said. The umpire walked out and talked to Turley after the pitcher stalked off the mound.

Turley said he was told by the umpire: "You can say whatever you want and I'm not going to throw you out of the game. I'm going to let them knock you out."

500-Mile Race Qualifications Will End Sunday

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Mechanics and drivers both fought a battle against time at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, where 10-mile trials today and Sunday were supposed to end qualifications for the 500-mile race May 30.

Time was running out for fixing serious mechanical ailments in several of the powerful but delicately constructed racers — notably Jimmy Bryan's 1958 winner, the Belond Special.

An oil pump sheared Friday in Bryan's car, which set a race record of 135.601 miles an hour two years ago with Sam Hanks at the wheel.

There was a chance that the trials might be rained out, or the running time reduced to the point where additional qualifications would be held early next week.

With 14 cars already qualified last weekend, 19 positions remained open in the starting field. There were 45 unqualified cars at the speedway.

Orioles' Wilhelm Handcuffs Yanks With One-Hitter, 5-0

AS INDIANS WON. Indians' shortstop Granny Hamner watches Tigers' catcher Lou Berberet jump across to retrieve ball following 7th inning strikeout by pitcher Paul Foytack. Hamner swung so hard at the third strike that he fell and was unable to escape tag by Berberet, who dropped ball. Indians won, 1-0. (UPI Telephoto)

Chisox Down A's; Boston Tops Nats

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

National League clubs brushed off Hoyt Wilhelm because they could tell when he was going to throw his money pitch, the knuckler. Now he holds the ball in his glove and American League hitters in the palm of his hand.

Once a bullpen wonder for the Giants in the National League, Wilhelm drifted to the Cardinals and then into the American League with Cleveland before coming to roost with Baltimore. It was Oriole Manager Paul Richards who suggested he hide the ball in his glove.

Now the 35-year-old right-hander has become such a mystery to hitters that he's unbeaten, and even had switch-hitting Mickey Mantle resorting to a rare tactic Friday night. The Mick didn't switch — and he didn't hit, either.

Fact is, Wilhelm came within six outs of becoming the first pitcher ever to no-hit the New York Yankees twice, then settled for a one-hitter while packing away his sixth victory as Baltimore belted the champs deeper into the cellar 5-0.

By winning their fifth straight over the Yankees, the third place Orioles stayed within 2½ games of the first place Cleveland Indians, who managed just two hits but beat Detroit 1-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Gary Bell. The second place Chicago White Sox, a half-game back, defeated Kansas City 2-1. Boston beat Washington 4-3.

In the National League, first place Milwaukee walloped Philadelphia 10-5 and Los Angeles took second by beating San Francisco 2-1 in 13 innings. Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati 4-3. St. Louis spilled the Chicago Cubs 3-1 in 14 innings.

Wilhelm walked six and struck out two, losing his no-hitter on Jerry Lumpe's leadoff single—off a knuckler—in the eighth.

The Orioles chased Bob Turley (3-5) with four runs in the first on five consecutive hits and a bases-loaded walk to Wilhelm—all with two out.

The Indians got both their hits off starter Paul Foytack (1-6) in the seventh inning, scoring on Vic Power's double and Minnie Minoso's two-out two-bagger. Ray Narleski pitched a hitless final inning for the Tigers.

Luis Aparicio led off with a single, stole second and scored on Nellie Fox's single in the first inning for the White Sox, then doubled and scored the clincher on an error in the third against Bob Grim (4-4). The A's had just four hits off Bob Shaw (4-0), who gave up a run in the sixth on Ray Boone's two-out single and Bob Cerv's double. Shaw gave way in the ninth, needing Turk Lown's relief and center fielder Jim Landis' diving catch of Dick Williams' liner for the final out with the bases loaded.

Ted Williams brought in the tying run for Boston with a sacrifice fly in the fifth, then doubled and scored the winning runs on Frank Malzone's double in the seventh. Dick Gernert's homer scored the other two Red Sox runs in the second against Camilo Pascual (3-4). Ike Delock (5-1) won it despite Nat homers by Reno Bertoia and Jim Lemon.

AVOIDS PICKOFF THROW. Chicago third baseman Bubba Phillips slides back into first base as Athletics' Hector Lopez moves over from second to take pickoff throw from catcher Frank House. Phillips was safe. Chicago took the first game of the series by a score of 2-1. (UPI Telephoto)

Bell's 1-0 Victory Erases Doubts Of Sophomore Jinx

CLEVELAND (AP)—Gary Bell has erased any doubts he might be bitten by the sophomore jinx.

The 22-year-old Cleveland right-hander hurled a four-hit shutout in a 1-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers Friday night. It was his first major league whitewash job and his second victory in a row.

At the end of last season when the Indians were driving for a first division spot, Bell was one of the team's top pitchers. He wound up with a 12-10 record after joining the Indians in midseason.

But this season he started out with some troubles. Manager Joe Gordon became a little concerned and put the young Texan in the bullpen. There Gordon and pitching coach Mel Harder inspected him closely.

They found the good-looking 6-foot-1, 195-pounder wasn't striding as he used to and wasn't getting the full follow-through on his pitches. They made some suggestions and they turned out fine when he beat the Baltimore Orioles 8-3 last Sunday on a seven-hitter.

Friday night against the Tigers Bell was as good as a pitcher can be. He had to be good, too, because Detroit's Paul Foytack allowed the league-leading Indians only two hits—a pair of seventh inning doubles by Vic Power and Minnie Minoso.

Here's what catcher Hal Naragon thought of Bell:

"Gary had everything out there . . . he was fast, strong all the way, had good control and came in with some good curves and sliders."

Bell, himself, said he never felt better this season.

"A couple of weeks ago I couldn't seem to get in the groove," Bell said. "I was hurrying my stride and getting all mixed up. Tonight I felt like a pitcher again."

Lumpe Ruins Wilhelm's Bid For 2nd No-Hitter

BALTIMORE (AP) — "Sure I would have liked to pitch another no-hitter but you have to be lucky to get even one of those."

That was Hoyt Wilhelm's calm appraisal of Jerry Lumpe's leadoff single in the eighth inning Friday night which ruined his bid for a second no-hitter over the New York Yankees since joining the Baltimore Orioles last Aug. 23. The Orioles beat the cellar-dwelling world champions 5-0.

Lumpe, a left-handed batter, sliced a 1-1 pitch to left field as a crowd of 29,084 first groaned and then applauded for Wilhelm.

"He hit a knuckle ball," said Wilhelm. "I knew it was a hit right away. It was just one of those things," he shrugged. "I guess one no-hitter is enough for anybody."

The 35-year-old right-hander, who throws knuckle balls about 90 per cent of the time, said he used quite a few fast balls and sliders in the early innings. But in the final three innings he relied almost entirely on the dancing knuckler.

Wilhelm said he was advised by pitching coach Harry Brecheen after the sixth inning to slow down his pace. "I did and I had more control after that," said Wilhelm.

Strangely enough, from the time he joined the New York Giants in 1952 until last year, he didn't start a game in the majors.

Wilhelm credits Oriole Manager Paul Richards with making him more effective by getting him to hold the ball in his glove to prevent tipping his pitches.

Drysdale Finally Wins 4th As Dodgers Shade Giants

By The Associated Press

It's been a long time coming, but Don Drysdale finally has nailed his fourth victory and the Los Angeles Dodgers at last are getting even with the San Francisco Giants.

The Dodgers grabbed second place in the National League from San Francisco as Drysdale, winless for almost a month, defeated the Giants 2-1 in 13 innings Friday night. It was the sixth victory over the Giants this season for the Dodgers—matching the total they managed in last year's 22-game series.

It also was Drysdale's fifth in a row over the Giants since last Aug. 8, but it looked like just another fruitless night for the lean right-hander until Gil Hodges' two-out single put it away. Drysdale (4-4) hadn't been a winner since April 27, but in that span he had gone 11 innings for no decision against Milwaukee and nine innings to no decision against San Francisco.

The runner-up switch upped Milwaukee's first place edge to four games after the Braves, with Hank Aaron going four-for-five, had walloped Philadelphia 10-5. Pittsburgh brought Cincinnati back to .500 by beating the fifth place Reds 4-3. And the St. Louis Cardinals put the Chicago Cubs fourth with a 3-1 decision in 14 innings.

In the American League, Cleveland had only two hits but beat Detroit 1-0, retaining a half-game lead over the Chicago White Sox, who defeated Kansas City 2-1. Hoyt Wilhelm came within six outs of becoming the first pitcher to no-hit the New York Yankees twice, then settled for a one-hitter as Baltimore defeated the last place champs 5-0. Boston beat Washington 4-3.

Drysdale and southpaw Johnny Antonelli were in a double two-hit duel for eight innings. The Dodgers had a 1-0 lead, scoring without a hit in the sixth on a walk, sacrifice and error, until Willie Kirkland's single and Orlando Cepeda's two-out triple — after Willie Mays had fanned — tied it in the ninth.

Aaron smacked a home run, a double and a pair of singles, scored four runs, drove in three and upped his league-leading average 12 points to .468. His homer, No. 12, came with a man on in a three-run first against Robin Roberts (2-3). Lew Burdette became the first to win seven in the majors.

Dick Schofield, inserted at shortstop only Thursday in a Pirate shake-up, beat the Reds with a ninth-inning homer, his first.

Gini Cimoli's double and a balk gave the Cards two runs in the 14th against losing reliever Bill Henry (3-2). Jim Brosnan (1-3) won it in relief.

Crash Hurts Rogers Man

A Rogers area man was admitted to Salem City Hospital and an East Palestine couple were injured slightly in two of four accidents reported Friday night and early today by the Lisbon State Highway Patrol.

Harry Faulkner, 24, of Rogers R. D. 1 received facial lacerations when his car left Route 7 about 10:35 last night and struck a culvert near Williamsport, 3½ miles south of Rogers.

Officers said Faulkner, who was traveling at a high rate of speed, will be cited for drunken driving.

Faulkner was reported in "fairly good" condition at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chattaway, 367 East St., East Palestine, were hurt when their car went off Route 14 about 5 miles east of Columbiana and rolled over about 7:15 p. m. Friday.

Chattaway, 52, the driver, suffered scalp laceration and Mrs. Bertha Chattaway, 49, received multiple lacerations of the forehead and left leg and abrasions and bruises of the body. They were treated by an East Palestine physician. The accident still is under investigation, officers said.

Cars driven by Ruth Vestals, 17, of New Waterford R. D. 1 and Donald Studsman, 35, of Blissfield, Mich., collided on Route 7 about 4 miles north of Rogers Friday at 7:10 p. m., officers said.

Studsman started to pass Miss Vestfals as she was making a left turn. He was cited for passing at an intersection.

A car owned by Cecil Casto of Martha St., East Liverpool R. D. 1, was found smashed into the guardrails along Route 30 a mile north of East Liverpool at 1:05 a. m. today. Officers said the car was demolished.

Casto said the car was stolen earlier in the evening, officers said. The accident still is under investigation.

Elevated By Club

Victor C. Smith Elected New President Of Lions

Victor C. Smith, office manager of the T-K Roofing Manufacturing Co., was elevated to the presidency of the Lions Club at the annual election Friday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel.

Smith, who was first vice president, succeeds Donald Baxter.

Howard E. Tice was advanced to first vice president with Charles Herman being moved up to second vice president.

James Johnston was elected third vice president, tantamount to election as president in 1962.

Other officers named were Fred Yonz, treasurer; Harry Dinsmore, Lion tamer; John Rippeth, tail twister, and John Covert and John Smith directors. The hold over directors are Dr. J. A. Fraser and David McEwen.

Because William Kyle and James N. Porter declined nominations as treasurer, a special election will be held Friday.

The officers will be installed at an "Installation Night" affair but the date and place have not been selected.

Petty Officer 1C Frank L. Thompson, local Navy recruiter, showed a color film, "Lifelines of Freedom," which portrayed the importance of keeping sea lanes open and the necessity for a strong naval striking force as a deterrent to attack by aggressors.

He was introduced by Laurin Stacey, program chairman.

City's Indices Top Last Year For 4 Months

A general strike of 3,500 pottery workers had a comparatively mild effect on East Liverpool business and industrial indices in April, allowing them to rise to average levels for the first four months in 1959 that stand well ahead of their positions at the same time in 1958.

Eleven of 13 indices stand now at levels exceeding the averages for the first 4 months of last year, the Chamber of Commerce said today in its monthly summary of conditions. In a comparison of March and April, seven indices registered gains and six declined.

For the first 4 months of 1959, gains were shown in bank clearings and debits, postal and sales tax receipts, inbound and outbound railroad carloadings, river traffic and tonnage, new car sales and parking meter receipts. There also was a corresponding decline in the city's relief case load.

Sales tax receipts, the barometer of retail business, stands at $196,360 for the first 4 months of 1959, a gain of 20 per cent over the $163,614 shown at the same time in 1958. Affected by the strike, they fell from $58,383 in March to $50,383 in April, a decline of 13.7 per cent.

Industrial payrolls stand at $4,400,778 for the first 4 months of 1959, down just 1 per cent from the $4,447,066 shown at the same time last year. Because of the strike, wages fell from $1,193,156 in March to $1,131,563 in April, off 5.2 per cent.

The district plants have averaged 4,251 employes monthly for the first 4 months of 1959, down 3.1 per cent from the average of 4,386 shown at the same time last year. April employment was 4,343, up 2 per cent from the 4,257 shown in March.

Inbound railroad carloadings stand at 1,281 for the first 4 months of 1959, up 48.6 per cent from the 862 recorded at the same time in 1958. They totaled 282 in April, down 17.3 per cent from the 341 in March.

Outbound railroad carloadings total 1,225 for the first 4 months of the year, up 46 per cent from the 839 shown at the same time last year. They hit 267 in April, down 22.2 per cent from 343 shown in March.

Dam 8, near Newell, has locked through 1,231 tows in the first 4 months of the year, a 7.3 gain over the 1,147 shown at the same time in 1958. It counted 458 towboats in April, up 266.4 per cent from the 125 shown in March.

River shipments total 5,834,105 tons for the first 4 months of 1959, up 26 per cent from the 4,632,000 tons shown at the same time in 1958. The April tonnage was 1,741,105, an increase of 20.4 per cent over the 1,445,600 shown in March.

New car registrations in the county total 1,103 for the first 4 months of 1959, an increase of 35.3 per cent from the 815 shown at the same time in 1958. They hit 286 in April, a decline of 16.9 per cent from the 344 registered in March.

Used car sales totaled 3,626 for the first 4 months of 1959, but there is no comparable figure available for 1958. They hit 996 in April, down 21 per cent from the 1,260 registered in March.

The city's parking meter receipts stand at $18,679 for the first 4 months of 1959, off 0.04 per cent from the $18,613 shown at the same time in 1958. They totaled $6,322 in April, up 50.4 per cent from the $4,204 shown in March.

The city's relief load averaged 93 cases in the first 4 months of the year, down 12.3 per cent from the 106 monthly average shown at the same time in 1958. The load was 82 cases in April, down 8.9 per cent from the 90 shown in March.

Postal receipts total $86,502 for the first 4 months of 1959, up 27.5 per cent from the $67,848 shown at the same time in 1958. They hit $20,440 in April, up 1 per cent from the $20,243 shown in March.

Bank debits have averaged $21,041,369 monthly so far in 1959, up 5 per cent from the $20,036,760 average shown at the same time in 1958. They totaled $21,517,125 in April, a gain of 2.2 per cent from the $21,048,373 shown in March.

Bank clearings totaled $12,057,615 in the first four months of 1959, an increase of 3.4 per cent from the $12,621,879 shown at the same time last year. They totaled $3,431,084 in April, an increase of 6.4 per cent from the $3,224,375 shown in March.

Topic Announced For Baccalureate At Chester Sunday

"Take Heed Unto Thyself" will be the theme of the sermon of the Rev. E. D. Gleaton of the Chester First Christian Church for baccalaureate for Chester High School seniors Sunday night at 8 at the school auditorium.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. Lewis Legg of the Church of the Nazarene, and the Scripture will be read by the Rev. William Claghorn of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. A. D. McGaffick of the Free Methodist Church will give prayer.

"God So Loved the World" will be sung by the Senior Choir.

Commencement will be held Tuesday night at the school where an exhibit of industrial arts and home economics will be on view at the gymnasium.

The modern slide rule was invented by a French Army officer, Amedee Mannheim, in 1850.

PTA At McKinley Fetes Graduates

Forty-six graduates of the sixth grade of McKinley School were honored with a party Friday night.

A color scheme of blue, yellow, green and pink was featured in the decorations made by the students. Crepe paper streamers were suspended from the ceiling of the second-floor hall and the sides of the hall and stairway were covered with paper flowers.

Card tables were covered with pastel cloths and floral center pieces. A large cake decorated in the school colors of green and white highlighted the buffet table appointments.

Each girl received a carnation corsage and the boys a boutonniere.

Samuel Parkes called for square dancing.

The McKinley Home and School Association sponsored the affair with Mrs. Jay Nuzum, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Fred Lawrence, Mrs. Francis Cubberly, Mrs. Gerald Goodballet and Mrs. Frank Buckley.

Guests were Miss Ruth Ladzinske, Miss Alice Jan Neiser and Parkes.

Class teachers were Miss Helen Allison, Mrs. Hazel Neiser, Mrs. Ann Louise Kerr and Wilbur Wolf.

The class presented Miss Allison with a gift.

Lawrenceville Firemen's Fair Set June 2-7

Seven amusement rides, nightly prizes and various booths and concessions will be featured at the annual Lawrenceville firemen's fair June 2-7 according to final plans made at a special meeting Thursday night at the fire station.

Six organizations have registered to operate concessions with more expected before opening night, Ray Bryan, general chairman, said. Any groups wanting to sponsor a booth may register with him.

Heck's Amusement Co. will operate the rides for which tickets are now on sale by firemen at reduced prices. The fair will open nightly at 7.

The firemen will operate a booth at the Liverpool Township, West, firemen's fair at LaCroft next week.

The firemen are collecting scrap iron to raise money, and anyone with scrap material may contact firemen. A new door is to be installed at the fire station over the weekend.

Okey Leaisure, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be June 11.

General Motors To Build Smaller And Lighter Car

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — General Motors announced Friday it would have a "smaller and lighter car" called the Corvair in its 1960 model line. A similar auto will be built by GM's affiliate in Canada.

Frederic G. Donner, chairman of the GM board and its chief executive officer, told more than 2,600 stockholders at the firm's annual meeting here that the new car—to be introduced this fall—will contain features "new to the American automotive industry."

Retaining an air of mystery around the Corvair, Donner declined to disclose any details. It has been reported, however, that the smaller, more compact Chevrolet would have a rear aluminum engine.

The GM announcement followed by a day disclosures by the Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. that they planned to build smaller American cars to meet competition of European imports and American Motors' Rambler and Studebaker's Lark.

Seniors To Hear Waterford Pastor

The Rev. Larry Hartfelder of the New Waterford Presbyterian Church will be speaker at baccalaureate for 52 graduates of Fairfield Waterford High School Sunday night at 8 at the Fairfield School.

Dr. Charles Davis, superintendent of Cadiz schools, will speak at commencement Thursday night at 8 at the school. Addresses will also be given by Jean Rupert, valedictorian, and Ellen Long, salutatorian.

Miss Rupert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Rupert of New Waterford R. D. 1, and Miss Long is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Long of Columbiana R. D. 2.

Mrs. Beulah Converse, president of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas.

Boy, 3, Drowns

CLEVELAND (AP) — Michael Shuter, 3, was drowned when he either fell or climbed down an embankment into Lake Erie at Forest Park Beach in Willoughby Friday. The boy had been playing with another child at the home of a married sister.

Installation Of Officers Held For Industry Township's PTA

New officers of the Fairview Parent - Teacher Association were installed by Mrs. Jack Haggerty, vice president of the Beaver County PTA Council, in a candlelight ceremony Thursday evening in the Fairview School in Industry Township.

They include Mrs. Ed Ryan, president; Mrs. Pete Popovich, vice president; Mrs. Wayne McClinton, secretary; Mrs. John Dawson, treasurer; and Mrs. Walter Fairweather, historian.

Mrs. McClinton was elected and installed following the resignation of Mrs. John Joseph, secretary-elect.

Frank A. Meredith, supervising principal, spoke about the eighth grade trip Friday to Pittsburgh. Charles Smith, sixth and seventh grade teacher, won the Blue Boy award.

Teachers were honored by group singing of two songs, one composed by Mrs. Fred Engle and the other by Mrs. Martin Richards. Both conducted the singing.

Mrs. William Shriver, president, presided, and the Rev. Ray McCreight, pastor of the Four - Mile United Presbyterian Church, gave the invocation.

Refreshments were furnished by the first grade mothers and served by Mrs. Michael Selac and the hospitality committee. Mrs. Victor Simpson was in charge of table decorations which included purple flowers, tapers and cherub angels.

A "hobby lobby," featuring hobbies of students, Girl and Boy Scouts and others was displayed.

Majorettes' Uniforms Shrink To Bikini Size

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Seventeen girl baton twirlers, whose uniforms shrank to Bikini dimensions, have been advised what to do during the Memorial Day parade—stay home.

The suggestion came Friday from Dr. Edward F. Kennelly, superintendent of schools.

The majorettes, pupils at West Side High School, had complained their 8-year-old uniforms had grown scantier and scantier due to repeated dry cleanings.

Doesn't Anyone Love Me?

I'm middle aged, on the spacious side, and need a little face lifting to be back in A-1 shape again, but who is perfect?

I really need to be wanted for my last love is moving far away.

In return for your love, I can shelter you and give you an enjoyable place to relax.

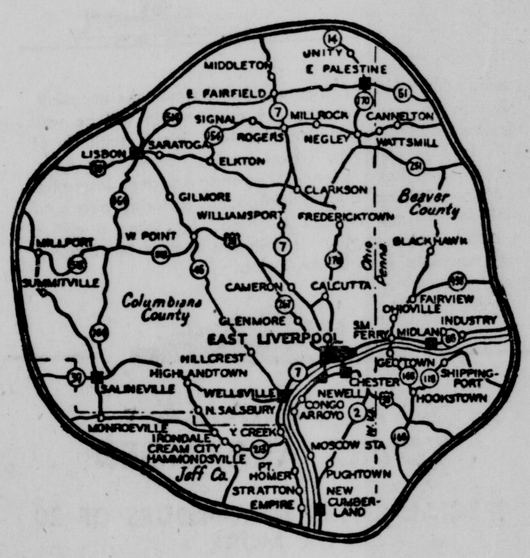

Even better, I'll work hard for you. In the past I've kept tourists, and even worked at being a lovely little restaurant. There are no restrictions on how you wish to use me.

City's Indices Top Last Year For 4 Months

A general strike of 3,500 pottery workers had a comparatively mild effect on East Liverpool business and industrial indices in April, allowing them to rise to average levels for the first four months in 1959 that stand well ahead of their positions at the same time in 1958.

Eleven of 13 indices stand now at levels exceeding the averages for the first 4 months of last year, the Chamber of Commerce said today in its monthly summary of conditions. In a comparison of March and April, seven indices registered gains and six declined.

For the first 4 months of 1959, gains were shown in bank clearings and debits, postal and sales tax receipts, inbound and outbound railroad carloadings, river traffic and tonnage, new car sales and parking meter receipts. There also was a corresponding decline in the city's relief case load.

Sales tax receipts, the barometer of retail business, stands at $196,360 for the first 4 months of 1959, a gain of 20 per cent over the $163,614 shown at the same time in 1958. Affected by the strike, they fell from $58,383 in March to $50,383 in April, a decline of 13.7 per cent.

Industrial payrolls stand at $4,400,778 for the first 4 months of 1959, down just 1 per cent from the $4,447,066 shown at the same time last year. Because of the strike, wages fell from $1,193,156 in March to $1,131,563 in April, off 5.2 per cent.

The district plants have averaged 4,251 employes monthly for the first 4 months of 1959, down 3.1 per cent from the average of 4,386 shown at the same time last year. April employment was 4,343, up 2 per cent from the 4,257 shown in March.

Inbound railroad carloadings stand at 1,281 for the first 4 months of 1959, up 48.6 per cent from the 862 recorded at the same time in 1958. They totaled 282 in April, down 17.3 per cent from the 341 in March.

Outbound railroad carloadings total 1,225 for the first 4 months of the year, up 46 per cent from the 839 shown at the same time last year. They hit 267 in April, down 22.2 per cent from 343 shown in March.

Dam 8, near Newell, has locked through 1,231 tows in the first 4 months of the year, a 7.3 gain over the 1,147 shown at the same time in 1958. It counted 458 towboats in April, up 266.4 per cent from the 125 shown in March.

River shipments total 5,834,105 tons for the first 4 months of 1959, up 26 per cent from the 4,632,000 tons shown at the same time in 1958. The April tonnage was 1,741,105, an increase of 20.4 per cent over the 1,445,600 shown in March.

New car registrations in the county total 1,103 for the first 4 months of 1959, an increase of 35.3 per cent from the 815 shown at the same time in 1958. They hit 286 in April, a decline of 16.9 per cent from the 344 registered in March.

Used car sales totaled 3,626 for the first 4 months of 1959, but there is no comparable figure available for 1958. They hit 996 in April, down 21 per cent from the 1,260 registered in March.

The city's parking meter receipts stand at $18,679 for the first 4 months of 1959, off 0.04 per cent from the $18,613 shown at the same time in 1958. They totaled $6,322 in April, up 50.4 per cent from the $4,204 shown in March.

The city's relief load averaged 93 cases in the first 4 months of the year, down 12.3 per cent from the 106 monthly average shown at the same time in 1958. The load was 82 cases in April, down 8.9 per cent from the 90 shown in March.

Postal receipts total $86,502 for the first 4 months of 1959, up 27.5 per cent from the $67,848 shown at the same time in 1958. They hit $20,440 in April, up 1 per cent from the $20,243 shown in March.

Bank debits have averaged $21,041,369 monthly so far in 1959, up 5 per cent from the $20,036,760 average shown at the same time in 1958. They totaled $21,517,125 in April, a gain of 2.2 per cent from the $21,048,373 shown in March.

Bank clearings totaled $12,057,615 in the first four months of 1959, an increase of 3.4 per cent from the $12,621,879 shown at the same time last year. They totaled $3,431,084 in April, an increase of 6.4 per cent from the $3,224,375 shown in March.

PTA At McKinley Fetes Graduates

Forty-six graduates of the sixth grade of McKinley School were honored with a party Friday night.

A color scheme of blue, yellow, green and pink was featured in the decorations made by the students. Crepe paper streamers were suspended from the ceiling of the second-floor hall and the sides of the hall and stairway were covered with paper flowers.

Card tables were covered with pastel cloths and floral center pieces. A large cake decorated in the school colors of green and white highlighted the buffet table appointments.

Each girl received a carnation corsage and the boys a boutonniere.

Samuel Parkes called for square dancing.

The McKinley Home and School Association sponsored the affair with Mrs. Jay Nuzum, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Fred Lawrence, Mrs. Francis Cubberly, Mrs. Gerald Goodballet and Mrs. Frank Buckley.

Guests were Miss Ruth Ladzinske, Miss Alice Jan Neiser and Parkes.

Class teachers were Miss Helen Allison, Mrs. Hazel Neiser, Mrs. Ann Louise Kerr and Wilbur Wolf.

The class presented Miss Allison with a gift.

Topic Announced For Baccalureate At Chester Sunday

"Take Heed Unto Thyself" will be the theme of the sermon of the Rev. E. D. Gleaton of the Chester First Christian Church for baccalaureate for Chester High School seniors Sunday night at 8 at the school auditorium.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. Lewis Legg of the Church of the Nazarene, and the Scripture will be read by the Rev. William Claghorn of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. A. D. McGaffick of the Free Methodist Church will give prayer.

"God So Loved the World" will be sung by the Senior Choir.

Commencement will be held Tuesday night at the school where an exhibit of industrial arts and home economics will be on view at the gymnasium.

The modern slide rule was invented by a French Army officer, Amedee Mannheim, in 1850.

Lawrenceville Firemen's Fair Set June 2-7

Seven amusement rides, nightly prizes and various booths and concessions will be featured at the annual Lawrenceville firemen's fair June 2-7 according to final plans made at a special meeting Thursday night at the fire station.

Six organizations have registered to operate concessions with more expected before opening night, Ray Bryan, general chairman, said. Any groups wanting to sponsor a booth may register with him.

Heck's Amusement Co. will operate the rides for which tickets are now on sale by firemen at reduced prices. The fair will open nightly at 7.

The firemen will operate a booth at the Liverpool Township, West, firemen's fair at LaCroft next week.

The firemen are collecting scrap iron to raise money, and anyone with scrap material may contact firemen. A new door is to be installed at the fire station over the weekend.

Okey Leaisure, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be June 11.

General Motors To Build Smaller And Lighter Car

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — General Motors announced Friday it would have a "smaller and lighter car" called the Corvair in its 1960 model line. A similar auto will be built by GM's affiliate in Canada.

Frederic G. Donner, chairman of the GM board and its chief executive officer, told more than 2,600 stockholders at the firm's annual meeting here that the new car—to be introduced this fall—will contain features "new to the American automotive industry."

Retaining an air of mystery around the Corvair, Donner declined to disclose any details. It has been reported, however, that the smaller, more compact Chevrolet would have a rear aluminum engine.

The GM announcement followed by a day disclosures by the Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. that they planned to build smaller American cars to meet competition of European imports and American Motors' Rambler and Studebaker's Lark.

Seniors To Hear Waterford Pastor

The Rev. Larry Hartfelder of the New Waterford Presbyterian Church will be speaker at baccalaureate for 52 graduates of Fairfield Waterford High School Sunday night at 8 at the Fairfield School.

Dr. Charles Davis, superintendent of Cadiz schools, will speak at commencement Thursday night at 8 at the school. Addresses will also be given by Jean Rupert, valedictorian, and Ellen Long, salutatorian.

Miss Rupert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Rupert of New Waterford R. D. 1, and Miss Long is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Long of Columbiana R. D. 2.

Mrs. Beulah Converse, president of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas.

Boy, 3, Drowns

CLEVELAND (AP) — Michael Shuter, 3, was drowned when he either fell or climbed down an embankment into Lake Erie at Forest Park Beach in Willoughby Friday. The boy had been playing with another child at the home of a married sister.

Installation Of Officers Held For Industry Township's PTA

New officers of the Fairview Parent - Teacher Association were installed by Mrs. Jack Haggerty, vice president of the Beaver County PTA Council, in a candlelight ceremony Thursday evening in the Fairview School in Industry Township.

They include Mrs. Ed Ryan, president; Mrs. Pete Popovich, vice president; Mrs. Wayne McClinton, secretary; Mrs. John Dawson, treasurer; and Mrs. Walter Fairweather, historian.

Mrs. McClinton was elected and installed following the resignation of Mrs. John Joseph, secretary-elect.

Frank A. Meredith, supervising principal, spoke about the eighth grade trip Friday to Pittsburgh. Charles Smith, sixth and seventh grade teacher, won the Blue Boy award.

Teachers were honored by group singing of two songs, one composed by Mrs. Fred Engle and the other by Mrs. Martin Richards. Both conducted the singing.

Mrs. William Shriver, president, presided, and the Rev. Ray McCreight, pastor of the Four - Mile United Presbyterian Church, gave the invocation.

Refreshments were furnished by the first grade mothers and served by Mrs. Michael Selac and the hospitality committee. Mrs. Victor Simpson was in charge of table decorations which included purple flowers, tapers and cherub angels.

A "hobby lobby," featuring hobbies of students, Girl and Boy Scouts and others was displayed.

Majorettes' Uniforms Shrink To Bikini Size

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Seventeen girl baton twirlers, whose uniforms shrank to Bikini dimensions, have been advised what to do during the Memorial Day parade—stay home.

The suggestion came Friday from Dr. Edward F. Kennelly, superintendent of schools.

The majorettes, pupils at West Side High School, had complained their 8-year-old uniforms had grown scantier and scantier due to repeated dry cleanings.

Doesn't Anyone Love Me?

I'm middle aged, on the spacious side, and need a little face lifting to be back in A-1 shape again, but who is perfect?

I really need to be wanted for my last love is moving far away.

In return for your love, I can shelter you and give you an enjoyable place to relax.

Even better, I'll work hard for you. In the past I've kept tourists, and even worked at being a lovely little restaurant. There are no restrictions on how you wish to use me.

Organ Workshop To Be Conducted Here On June 1

Two organ workshops will be held at the Westgate School auditorium on June 1.

Church organists in particular are invited to the afternoon session at 2 p.m. and those more interested in popular music to the evening session at 8. The instruction is being sponsored by the Smith & Phillips Co.

Porter Heaps, Columbia recording artist, will conduct the workshops. He is recognized as one of America's outstanding organists and teachers.

He will discuss and demonstrate the simplicity with which the organ can be played, plus such things as the arranging of popular music, special effects, registration and other subjects.

He has appeared throughout the world as a concert artist and lecturer and was guest soloist with the Detroit and Chicago Symphony orchestras. He also has served as organist and choir director at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Evanston, Ill.

Ralph A. Finley of the Smith & Phillips Co. said the public is invited to attend both sessions, but requests that those interested call FU 5-1215 for free tickets.

The five presidents who were married twice were Tyler, Fillmore, Benjamin Harrison, Theodore Roosevelt and Wilson.

Dixie Little Heads Insurance Group

Dixie Little of the Prudential Insurance Co. was elected president of the East Liverpool Life Underwriters Association at a luncheon meeting Friday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel.

Other officers named were Robert Kollman, first vice president; James Steiner, second vice president; Richard Wonders, secretary-treasurer; G. V. Weinstock, state committeeman, and Russell E. Hall, national committeeman.

Committees named by Little included membership and attendance, H. E. Tice, chairman, Alex Della Valle, Robert Murray, Richard Bosworth, Clarence Barnett and James Rogers; program, Laurin Stacey and Barnett, co-chairmen; public relations, Leo C. Lawrence, and laws and legislation, William H. Patch, the retiring president.

The program included organ selections by Curt Davis, organist at the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church. The Rev. James Gardner, a guest, gave the invocation.

The next meeting will be June 26 when the national quality awards will be presented.

Organ Workshop To Be Conducted Here On June 1

Two organ workshops will be held at the Westgate School auditorium on June 1.

Church organists in particular are invited to the afternoon session at 2 p.m. and those more interested in popular music to the evening session at 8. The instruction is being sponsored by the Smith & Phillips Co.

Porter Heaps, Columbia recording artist, will conduct the workshops. He is recognized as one of America's outstanding organists and teachers.

He will discuss and demonstrate the simplicity with which the organ can be played, plus such things as the arranging of popular music, special effects, registration and other subjects.

He has appeared throughout the world as a concert artist and lecturer and was guest soloist with the Detroit and Chicago Symphony orchestras. He also has served as organist and choir director at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Evanston, Ill.

Ralph A. Finley of the Smith & Phillips Co. said the public is invited to attend both sessions, but requests that those interested call FU 5-1215 for free tickets.

The five presidents who were married twice were Tyler, Fillmore, Benjamin Harrison, Theodore Roosevelt and Wilson.

Dixie Little Heads Insurance Group

Dixie Little of the Prudential Insurance Co. was elected president of the East Liverpool Life Underwriters Association at a luncheon meeting Friday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel.

Other officers named were Robert Kollman, first vice president; James Steiner, second vice president; Richard Wonders, secretary-treasurer; G. V. Weinstock, state committeeman, and Russell E. Hall, national committeeman.

Committees named by Little included membership and attendance, H. E. Tice, chairman, Alex Della Valle, Robert Murray, Richard Bosworth, Clarence Barnett and James Rogers; program, Laurin Stacey and Barnett, co-chairmen; public relations, Leo C. Lawrence, and laws and legislation, William H. Patch, the retiring president.

The program included organ selections by Curt Davis, organist at the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church. The Rev. James Gardner, a guest, gave the invocation.

The next meeting will be June 26 when the national quality awards will be presented.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of Sadie B. Hoyt who passed away 3 years ago today, May 23, 1956. Sadly missed by children and grandchildren.

3 CARD OF THANKS

WE wish in this way to express our sincere thanks to Rev. Carl Beighley for his kind help during the recent death of our dear husband, son and father, PAUL W. BURBICK. Also the Martin Funeral Home and American Paper Products Co. and all its employees. To all those who sent flowers and to our many friends for their kindness and thoughtfulness. Wife, mother and daughter.

WE wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, and beautiful floral offerings received from our kind friends and neighbors during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father MR. E. C. BARTLEY. We especially thank the Rev. Glenn Brunstetter, Dr. Hayes, Dr. Bennett, staff of East Liverpool Osteopathic Hospital and the American Legion and auxiliary of Post 374. Mrs. E. C. The big ads you have been seeing on the new SELECT-O-SPEED transmission for Ford have been telling you of its wonders. Well I'm telling you fellows it's the thing we have been hoping for, but never thought possible. You have 10 gears forward and 2 in reverse to select from. Shift anytime to any gear to suit the load. No stopping or grinding gears. Just hook it up and go. You also have 545 and 1,000 r.p.m.s on the P.T.O. plus ground travel P.T.O. speed. With all these outstandinng features this new Ford tractor is still priced way below anything in its competition. Come and see this tractor work the first chance you get and you'll see what I mean.
Out-right sale or trade in, we promise you the best deal to be had anywhere.

The big ads you have been seeing on the new SELECT-O-SPEED transmission for Ford have been telling you of its wonders. Well I'm telling you fellows it's the thing we have been hoping for, but never thought possible. You have 10 gears forward and 2 in reverse to select from. Shift anytime to any gear to suit the load. No stopping or grinding gears. Just hook it up and go. You also have 545 and 1,000 r.p.m.s on the P.T.O. plus ground travel P.T.O. speed. With all these outstanding features this new Ford tractor is still priced way below anything in its competition. Come and see this tractor work the first chance you get and you'll see what I mean.
Out-right sale or trade in, we promise you the best deal to be had anywhere.

Class Day Exercises Held

Marilyn Gibas Receives Wells High's Main Award

Miss Marilyn Gibas was presented the Balfour Award as the outstanding senior judged on scholarship, loyalty and achievement as a highlight of Class Day exercises of Wells High School Friday afternoon at Newell.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Gibas, 518 Grant St., she was presented with a gold charm by Principal Harold D. Gregory. Her name is to be engraved on a plaque, along with 12 other students honored in past years.

Miss Gibas was queen of the Junior - Senior Prom and was tied for valedictorian with two other students in scholastic achievement.

The exercises also included presentation of letters to 21 band members, certificates of merit to 23 others, scholarship pins to 21 students and athletic awards.

Recipients of the Babe Ruth Sportsmanship Award were Miss Carol Nease and Harold Cawthon for sportsmanship displayed in all activities. They were presented identical bronze charms and will have their names engraved on a plaque to be displayed in the school entrance. Charms were presented by Russell Slack on behalf of the faculty.

The Danforth Award for scholarship, leadership, physical ability, moral and spiritual character went to Miss Nease and Jerry Osburn. They received books entitled "I Dare You," challenging the reader to high goals of achievement.

In recognition of science aptitude among students with two or more years of science classes, medals provided by Bausch & Lomb were presented to Mary Burligar.

Nominated for Girls' State were Nancy Rice and Diane Robinson. Boys' state nominees are Ronald Dunlevy and Clarence Wilson. The project is sponsored by American Legion Post 114 and auxiliary.

A history of the Senior Class was read by Lena Bowers. The class prophecy was read by Beverly Gilmore, and legacy by Miss Burligar.

Invocation and welcome to parents were given by Miss Gibas, president of the Student Council. The Seniors Class sang "Alma Mater" and the benediction of "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You." The recessional of "Auld Lang Syne" was played by the high school band.

Seniors posed for pictures in cap and gowns in front of the auditorium following the program.

Reservists Will Hold Bivouac At Cable Park

Some 80 members of Co. A, 7th Medium Tank Battalion of the Army Reserves, will begin a weekend training program tonight at 6 at the Poplar Ln. Armory.

The company will bivouac tonight at the Columbiana County Fish and Game Assn. rifle range near Cable Park off Route 7. Range firing for qualification with the .45-caliber pistol is slated Sunday. Members attending are to bring raincoats and blankets. 1st. Lt. John Markanton, company commander, and 1st. Lt. Leroy Murphy will be in charge.

Kaycees To Give Parochial School Scholars Bonds

The Cardinal Mercier Assembly of the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus will present annual awards of $25 Savings Bonds to students with the highest scholastic record in the three district Parochial Schools.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, faithful navigator of the assembly, said the pastor and principal of each school will pick the honor student and the award will be presented at their commencement exercises.

St. Aloysius Parochial School of East Liverpool and Our Lady of Lourdes Parochial School at East Palestine will pick eighth grade students but the Immaculate Conception Parochial School at Wellsville will name a sixth grader. Its upper classes go to junior high school.

O'Hanlon said the assembly will hold its annual election meeting June 17 at 8 p. m. in the East Liverpool home of Carroll Council 509 of the Knights of Columbus. Summer activities will also be planned.

Rep. Wetzel Recorded As Against 2 Measures

State Rep. Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon voted against two measures in the Ohio House of Representatives this week, and was in favor of a third.

Rep. Wetzel supported a bill establishing a dairy marketing division to ban unfair practices, which was passed 83-50. He opposed a $1.8 billion appropriation for the biennium — which passed 85-50 — and a bill to change the utility rate base formula, which was rejected 80-53.
